Chapter 2420

The boy's parents were shocked by the girl's words and looked at the girl.

They saw the girl's little hand being held by her father. Her father was sturdy, with a face full of flesh, and a very uneasy aura.

"What's the matter? You didn't hear what my daughter said? Your son bullies the little girl, not to mention being caught in the face. Even if he is beaten to death, he deserves it!

Bullying, isn't it cheap?" The strong man supported his daughter.

When the mother-in-law saw that someone was helping to speak, she immediately struck while the iron was hot: "Teacher, you see, this was not provoked by Siena, how can you blame Siena? Who is unreasonable and who is bullying, I believe your teacher also knows clearly. Because we are all weak, bully us! If your kindergarten really doesn't want to accept Siena, that's fine, you can refund the full tuition to us."

The teacher looked embarrassed: “Grandma Siena, don’t worry. Our head teacher is not at school today. I’ll call and ask the head teacher.”

“Okay. I hope you can tell the head teacher who did it first. Siena is just self-defense, have we been beaten? Can’t we fight back? Also, what was the teacher doing when Siena was beaten? Why didn’t he stop the child from being bullied in the first place?” The mother-in-law’s voice was loud, and the more she spoke, the more excited she said, “It’s all to blame for something happening now.”

Mother-in-law’s words resonated with other parents. “Whoever hits someone first is the fault. Even if you want to be expelled, it is the one who does it first! In foreign countries, many kindergartens have clear rules that if a child hits someone, they will be warned the first time and will be expelled the second time.

Parents are also at fault if they don’t educate their children well. If my child bullies other children in kindergarten, I will only feel ashamed, how dare I be aggressive and make trouble!” Another parent said.

“It’s just that the child is ignorant, and the parent can’t understand it? It’s pitiful enough for the little girl’s face to be injured. Don’t you think it’s too much?” Another parent was righteous and opened their mouth.

The teacher was a little embarrassed for a moment: “When the two children were arguing today, our teacher didn’t find out immediately, it was our omission. There are more than 40 children in a class, and sometimes our teacher can’t take care of them.

Siena’s Grandma, I apologize to you. Siena is very good, and I believe that the head teacher will not let Siena drop out of school after knowing this. You should take Siena back to rest first!”

The mother-in-law didn’t say anything, and took Siena to the talking parents which helped her just now...

The mother-in-law: “Thank you for helping us speak.” “You are very kind. Although my child and Siena are not in the same class, if there is a group activity in the future, I will let my child play with Siena.”

The mother-in-law: “Thank you, thank you very much.”

After Siena returning home, she immediately checked her scalp for scratches.

“Mother-in-law, it hurts a little here.” Siena stretched out her fingers and pointed to the back of her head. The mother-in-law immediately looked at the back of her head. She had a red scalp on the back of her head. “Siena, you did the right thing today. If someone hits you, you just have to fight back. Even if you get kicked out of the school, it’s fine. There are so many schools, we can go to other schools.” The mother-in-law taught. “Mother-in-law, there are actually many good people. Uncles and aunts who were unfamiliar helped us talk just now, and they are all good people.” Siena recalled what she heard at school just now, and was still very moved. “You’re such a silly girl. You always only remember good things.” The mother-in-law sighed helplessly. “Because that will make me happier. Mother-in-law, I’m hungry.” Siena forgot all her grievances and ran towards the kitchen happily.

In the evening, after Siena fell asleep, the mother-in-law called the Miss. “Miss, is your first day at work today, is it going well?”
