

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2576

Christopher gasped: "Is there anything more wrong?"

Galia smiled sadly : "Well, in fact, it's my fault that I can't tell the difference myself. I like to find fault with others, and I even quarrel with others.

I classify everything as me, it's my fault. I have to admit defeat.

It is a common occurrence for me to have conflicts with several people in one day. In the end, I also apologized for that incident.

I first apologized to the workshop director, 'I'm sorry, director, I will not be private in the future. I've asked them to make samples. Could you please help me this time? I'll pay attention next time. It's all my fault. Please help me to make some adjustments anyway. Help me make sample clothes first. If you don't have enough manpower, I can provide Your workers help.'

Just like this, the workshop director is relieved. I will forgive you this time. I hope you don't have a next time. You can't blame others for your own dereliction of duty. .

You said you want to help me, please hurry up. If you don't hurry, I can't guarantee that you can send it today.'

After that, the workshop director left.

As for the workshop workers making samples for me , it's solved.

I breathed a sigh of relief, turned my face and apologized to my female colleague again, "I'm sorry, Miss Hu, I know I'm wrong. I didn't make arrangements in time for work. Arrangement, I'm sorry." Remember the URL and my female colleague would say, 'Like your behavior that you offend people every time, and apologize every time you offend people, our entire office already knows your behavior, Your apology is worthless at all. I don't care. It's mainly the workshop director. What is it for?

To give you a sample and put up with your quarrels?

If it were me, I wouldn't do it for you!

You'd better hurry up and help make the samples!

I tell you, before it's too late, I'll send it out today!

Hey, it's about to have lunch, remember, I must send it at two o'clock.

Don't be too late! '

I immediately said cautiously, 'Don't worry, I have to get the samples out even if I don't eat at noon. '

At noon that day, I didn't eat, and it was obvious that I went to the workshop to help the workers. In fact, I did most of the work myself. Finally, I dared to finish the samples before one o'clock. I came back with the samples and saw The workshop director and my female colleague were chatting and laughing, drinking afternoon tea.

Actually, I don't know what other people feel.

In fact, at that moment, I hated it.

Hate these two people.

I even hated it to the point of twisting in my heart.

But I still didn't dare to attack, so I just kept working hard.

If after that incident, nothing like this would happen again, I would still be able to work in any place. After all, the salary was quite large at the time, and the office environment was also good. In any other place except the office, I would In front of my classmates, in front of my netizens, in front of a small village in my hometown, and in front of my relatives, I have a lot of face.

But, after that incident, there will be a lot of things like that, which make me a target in the office.

I'm like a hedgehog on the verge of fire.

Arguing with different people every day.

My spirit is getting more and more tense and more sensitive.

At the end of the quarrel, even when I went to eat in the cafeteria, those people hid when they saw me. They got together and talked a lot. I didn't know what they were talking about, but I always thought they were talking about me.

Chapter 2577

I will quarrel with them like a madman. "

Christopher put one arm around Galia, and asked very distressed: "Things have developed like this, and the boss and the boss don't even fire you?" Galia smiled bitterly again: "

For a long time, I also felt strange, why is it that I am like this, and my boss still doesn't fire me? I often hear my boss say a word, give you a chance, give you a chance, if it were another company, you would not have this opportunity long ago.

Every time I hear the boss say something like this, I am so grateful that I get to my knees.

I was also afraid, I went to another company, and no one really wanted me.

So, even though I'm a mess in my relationships and I'm getting pretty bad, but also because I don't have a single person in the company to talk to, I have to be careful and careful in my work.

I worked for a company for three years, and since then, I have really made very few mistakes in my work.

But even so, I was still wronged.

Every time I had an argument with someone before, I couldn't be sure if it was my fault or theirs.

But the one time that led to my final decision to quit was really not my fault.

Brother Christopher, do you know how wronged I was that time? "

Christopher asked sadly: "What kind of thing is that? "

Galia raised her head and tried her best to swallow her tears and said, "For the external orders received by the company, I made a detailed description in my hand, gave the process and production process, and then distributed them to a person in charge of dyeing in our company. , the person in charge is an elder of the company, older than my boss.

The boss respects that person very much.

That person is also one of the few elders in the company who has not quarreled with me. Regarding this elder, our company has nothing to do with him. A few people dared to offend him. Of course, I am respectful to him. When I prepared this process for him, all the details of the process were clearly written, but he still made mistakes in the process of dyeing. The finished products I got back were all broken.

The whole company, including the boss, thought it was because I didn't do my job well. The female colleague of mine last time was the one who placed the order for me and even had the order in her hand. It fell directly on my head and made me take full responsibility!

She said that I have always been unqualified.

Why didn't the company fire me, she made such a big mistake, she couldn't explain it to the client, she asked me to tell the client myself. After explaining it, he held me like that.

I had no choice but to take me in duplicate and show her the process flow sheet signed by the old man.

She was speechless for a while.

Then she became angry. He smiled and said: 'Lin Lao is also quite unlucky. A veteran like him, who has made great contributions to the company's establishment, has never made a mistake in his life. How can he make a mistake when he made a list of your responsibility?

This means that it is still you. After that, my female colleague said to the veteran, "Lin Lao, it's alright, it's alright, don't worry, it's none of your business, it's Galia's fault, she's always been What's wrong, how many times has the company held the blame for her...'

Brother Christopher, do you know how I reacted when I heard this?"

Christopher was already gnashing his teeth angrily: "You quit your job, didn't you have a big fight with her?"

Galia's face was helpless and sad: "At that time my female colleague said half of what I said, I Then he went crazy and yelled at her like 'Apologize to me surnamed Hu! You don't apologize to me today, I'll stop with you!'"

Christopher said with a gratified smile: "You did a good job, Galia."

"But , do you know how my female colleague reacted?" Galia looked at Christopher sadly.
