

An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1431

“What’s special?”

Facing Samuel Thompson’s meaningful gaze, the corners of Dustin’s eyes twitched twice, and he felt his scalp go numb.

This guy doesn’t really want my body, does he?

Dustin took a deep breath, calmed down and said, “Young Mr. Thompson, I heard that the Thompson family has developed very well in medicine, and here I have a magical spiritual medicine called Jade Dew Ointment. It can not only stop bleeding and heal wounds, but also It can remove scars, once it comes out, it will be enough for the Thompson family to make a lot of money.”

“Spiritual medicine?”

Samuel Thompson picked up the tea cup and took a sip, and said without interest: “There are countless medicines like this in our Thompson family. For example, Thompson’s Golden Sore Medicine is specially used to treat wounds and remove scars, and its effect is far better than those on the market. Those spiritual medicines.”

“Of course I’ve heard about Thompson’s golden sore medicine, but it’s still a lot worse than my Jade Dew Ointment.” Dustin said with a smile.

“Oh? So confident?” Samuel Thompson was quite surprised.

Tangjia Medicine is the leader in the industry.

Whether it is acquisitions or drugs developed, they are all top-notch.

And Thompson’s golden sore medicine is even more famous and the sales volume is extremely good.

A spiritual medicine that he had never heard of before dared to challenge Thompson’s golden sore medicine. He was curious, where did the man in front of him have the confidence?

“Not confidence, but fact.”

Dustin said solemnly: “It is no exaggeration to say that the healing effect of Jade Dew Ointment is at least ten times that of Thompson’s Golden Sore Medicine!”

“What? Ten times?”

Hearing this, Samuel Thompson’s volume was raised a bit, and he asked: “You are not playing me on purpose, are you? Look at me, do you look like a badass?”

You know, Thompson’s Golden Sore Medicine is already the best spiritual medicine on the market.

A Jade Dew Ointment that I had never heard of, dared to claim that it was ten times as effective as Thompson’s golden sore medicine.

He was simply fooled into thinking he was a fool.

“Young Mr. Thompson, don’t be impatient. If it’s true or not, just try it and you’ll know.”

Dustin smiled slightly and didn’t explain much.

Instead, in the same way as before, a cut was made on the arm, and then Jade Dew Ointment was applied.

After waiting for about a stick of incense, Dustin wiped off the remaining Jade Dew Ointment, revealing a brand new arm.

The previous wounds have suddenly recovered as before.

“How can it be?”

Seeing this scene, Samuel Thompson couldn’t help but widen his eyes.

Even though he was well-informed, he was also shocked by the scene in front of him.

Such a long wound will disappear immediately. The effect of this medicine is too miraculous, right?

Down’s syndrome medicine has achieved its current status after years of research and development.

However, the performance of this Jade Dew Cream completely beats the Tang syndrome medicine.

The medicine is more than ten times more effective.

It's an exaggeration!

"How's it going? Are you satisfied with my Jade Dew Cream, Mr. Thompson?" Dustin seemed to be smiling but not smiling.

"This..." Samuel Thompson's expression froze.

More than satisfaction?

If this medicine comes out, all the spiritual medicines on the market will no longer be used.

This is completely a dimensionality reduction blow.

"Master, be careful of fraud!"

At this time, the female guard Anna, who had been watching with cold eyes, suddenly spoke.

"I wonder if Miss Anna has any concerns?" Dustin asked.

"How can there be such a magical medicine? I suspect that you have tampered with it just now." Anna said with a cold face.

In her opinion, Dustin must have used some kind of cover-up trick to deliberately deceive.

Just like those magicians on the stage, they cut people up and then put them back together intact.

These are all tricks to fool people.

"It seems that Miss Anna can't trust me. How about you try it yourself?" Dustin pushed the jade dew ointment to the table.

"Just try it."

Without saying anything, Anna drew out the knife and scratched her thigh.

As the blade cut across, Anna's thigh was immediately torn open and dripping with blood.

Judging from the wound, the cut was very deep.

If it were an ordinary person, he probably wouldn't be able to help screaming.

However, Anna's face remained expressionless throughout, and she didn't even frown, as if what she was cutting was not her own body.

This woman is indeed a wolf killer!

"Here comes the medicine!"

Anna raised her feet on the chair and tore off half of her trousers, revealing her white thighs that still looked powerful and beautiful.

Then he dug a handful of ointment from the jar and applied it to the wound casually.

Then, a magical scene happened.

In just a few breaths, the blood from the wound stopped flowing out.

That cold and numb feeling finally made the expressionless Anna feel a little strange.

As a martial arts master, she can naturally feel the subtle changes in her body.

I have to admit that this ointment is indeed extraordinary.

After about a stick of incense, Anna wiped it with a towel.

Sure enough, the previous stab wound had basically recovered, leaving only a faint red mark.

That's newborn tender meat.

"Miss Anna, you should believe it now, right?" Dustin said with a smile.

“good.”

Anna nodded, then hugged her knife and quietly stepped aside without saying a word.

“Mr. Thompson, what do you think?” Dustin turned his eyes.

Samuel Thompson smiled with satisfaction: “Although I am not interested in money, I still have to contribute a little bit for the sake of the family business. How do you plan to cooperate with this Jade Dew Cream?”

“In terms of production, I have found the Lancaster Family to cooperate. Mr. Thompson, you will be responsible for sales and promotion. You will use the Thompson family’s connections and influence to make Jade Dew Ointment a hit. As for the sharing, it will be divided according to four, three, and three. Your Thompson family will take 40%, and the Lancaster Family and I will each take 30%, how about that?” Dustin made the conditions.

“I thought you wanted the lion to be too open-minded, but I didn’t expect you were not greedy at all.” Samuel Thompson smiled half-heartedly.

With the influence of the Thompson family, it is no problem to take 40%, but it is another matter to take the initiative to say it from Dustin’s mouth.

“When doing business, we should pay attention to sincerity and fairness. The Thompson family contributes the most, so naturally it takes the majority.” Dustin said with a smile.

“Yes, you are very suitable to my taste.”

Samuel Thompson nodded in satisfaction, with an even bigger smile on his face.

Those hot eyes gave Dustin goosebumps.

There shouldn’t be any unspoken rules, right?

“Young Mr. Thompson, it’s not all smooth sailing for Jade Dew Ointment. We still have two competitors. I hope you can be prepared.” Dustin changed the subject in a timely manner.

“Oh? Who dares to compete with our Thompson family?” Samuel Thompson raised his eyebrows slightly.

“The Torby Family and the Stratford Family among the eight wealthy families...”

Dustin did not hide anything and simply told what happened.

“So that’s what happened.”

After listening, Samuel Thompson was calm and calm, and didn’t care: “With the virtues of the Torby and Stratford families, it’s not surprising that they did such a despicable thing, but don’t worry, the Thompson family will protect you from now on, and they dare not mess with you.” Come.

As for the market, there is no need to worry, our goods are good and cheap, coupled with the contacts and influence of the Thompson family, it is enough to kill them all. “

“With Samuel Thompson’s words, I feel relieved.” Dustin nodded slightly.

“Little Dustin, follow me from now on, I will never treat you badly, and I promise to make you popular and delicious.”

Samuel Thompson put his hand on Dustin’s shoulder, and patted it lightly, with a meaningful smile.

Dustin froze, not knowing whether to cry or laugh.

Talking about business is business, what the hell do you want to do with your hands and feet?

“Dustin, I think you look good, with thin skin and tender flesh, which fits my aesthetics very well.”

“As long as you agree to some of my needs, I guarantee that you will be rich and prosperous in the future, and you will have endless enjoyment!”

Samuel Thompson looked up and down, his eyes were hot, as if admiring a beautiful plaything.

“ ... ”

Dustin suddenly broke out in a cold sweat and his scalp became numb.

Oh shit! After all, I still didn't escape!

"Why are you so nervous? I won't eat you."

Samuel Thompson pinched Dustin's broad shoulders and praised: "Looking thin, I didn't expect it to be quite strong to the touch. It should be that he looks thin when he is wearing clothes, but he looks fleshy when he is undressed, right? Yes, it's really good."

Dustin's goosebumps instantly covered his whole body. He quickly pushed Samuel Thompson's hand away and said solemnly: "Let's talk business. If you have other needs, I really can't satisfy them."

"Dustin, I'm doing it for your own good. With the Thompson family as your backer, you can almost walk sideways in Stonia in the future. It's just a little sacrifice. It's no big deal. You know, most people don't have this blessing." Samuel Thompson said earnestly.

"Forget it, I can't afford your blessing." Dustin waved his hands again and again.

Making him sell his ass is worse than killing him.

"You! You are so blessed that you don't know how to be blessed. If it weren't for your good looks and versatile talents, do you think I would take advantage of you?"

Samuel Thompson shook his head and sighed: "Do you know how many people want to be my brother-in-law? You can line up directly to the east of the city from here. I'm giving you a chance!"

"etc!"

Dustin was suddenly stunned: "What did you just say? Brother-in-law?"

Aren't you greedy for your body? How did he become a brother-in-law?

"certainly."

Samuel Thompson said seriously: “I have a total of seven sisters, four of whom are married now, and three more who are waiting to be married at home. They are all very young. I, as a younger brother, am worried!”

Everyone in the world said that he had a good reincarnation, but they didn’t understand his troubles at all.

As the only child in the family, he has been placed on high expectations since he was a child, so it is natural that he cannot just lie down.

There are so many things to learn every day. Fortunately, I still have a bright mind and am outstanding in all aspects.

But it was his sisters’ marriages that troubled him the most.

Firstly, it requires being well-matched, secondly, it requires good looks, thirdly, it requires outstanding talent, and fourthly, it requires paying attention to character.

There are simply too many demands from all aspects.

The most important thing is that he is not looking for one brother-in-law, but three!

One can imagine how difficult it is.

So whenever he has time, he will look for suitable partners for his sisters.

After the observation just now, he found that Dustin was pretty good in all aspects, so he had evil thoughts and wanted him to be his brother-in-law.

“It turned out to be brother-in-law?” Dustin breathed a sigh of relief: “I was shocked, I thought...”

“Why?”

Samuel Thompson was startled, and then suddenly realized: “Oh~ I understand, you don’t think I have anything wrong with you, do you?”

“This...” Dustin was quite embarrassed.

There is indeed something wrong with the other party’s words and actions just now.

“Is it rumored that I am as good as Long Yang?” Samuel Thompson smiled.

“Well... Actually, it’s not really gossip, because I spread the news myself.” Samuel Thompson looked calm.

“Huh?” Dustin was stunned for a moment, a little confused.

“You also know that handsome people always have some troubles.”

Samuel Thompson smoothed his hair with his fingers, and said very narcissistically: “A handsome man like me, with a rich family background, and a talented man, has an endless stream of women who fall into his arms every day, like crucian carp crossing the river.

In order to avoid some trouble, I simply claimed that I liked men. Over time, such rumors began to spread. “

“So that’s the case.” Dustin nodded.

The strangeness in my heart finally calmed down.

Hazel Lancaster’s psychological induction before, coupled with some of Samuel Thompson’s behaviors just now, are indeed easy to be misunderstood.

Fortunately, we clarified it in person, otherwise there would inevitably be some grudges in future cooperation.

“Dustin, then again, do you want to consider becoming my brother-in-law?”

“As long as you marry my sister, the Thompson family will be your backing from now on. You can get wind and rain whenever you want, and you can sit at home and enjoy happiness every day.”

“The key point is that my three sisters are all as beautiful as flowers, and they are proficient in music, chess, calligraphy and painting. They will never let you suffer.”

Samuel Thompson spared no effort to sell, giving full play to his matchmaker qualities.

“Young Mr. Thompson is joking. I’m just a nobody. I really can’t compete with the daughters of the Thompson family.” Dustin declined politely.

“It’s okay, I don’t care about these, as long as I like you, you can be my brother-in-law, and my sisters will not refuse.”

As Samuel Thompson spoke, he took out his mobile phone from his pocket, pulled out the photos, and began to introduce Dustin one by one: “Come on, come on... Come and take a look. These are the photos of my sisters. You can look at them from the inside.” Choose one, choose whoever you like, don’t have to worry about it, and leave the rest to me.”

“ah?”

Dustin’s mouth twitched.

Why does this guy seem to be selling products?

And it’s free, you don’t need to spend money at all, just pick it up if you like it.

Can’t wait?

“How about it? My sisters are all very beautiful, right? If you don’t feel satisfied with one, you can have two. As long as your body can bear it, I don’t care.” Samuel Thompson said happily.

“Young Mr. Thompson, I appreciate your kindness, but I already have a fiancée, so I don’t need to mention this matter anymore.” Dustin shook his head and declined.

“What’s a fiancée? As long as you’re not married.” Samuel Thompson said indifferently: “Isn’t your fiancée more beautiful than my sisters?”

“It is indeed prettier than your sisters.” Dustin nodded.

“Forehead.....”

Samuel Thompson’s face froze and he was speechless.

Can this guy talk?

“That’s all. If you’re not interested, I won’t force you. I can only say that we are destined to be incompatible.” Samuel Thompson shook his head regretfully, as if he had suffered a huge loss.

“Mr. Thompson, the matter about Jade Dew Ointment...” Dustin hesitated to speak.

“Don’t worry, business is business, and feelings are feelings. I can understand these things clearly.”

Samuel Thompson displayed his folding fan and said coolly: “As long as you produce this Jade Dew Cream, our Thompson family will definitely support it. Then we can all make money together, why not?”

“Mr. Thompson is indeed wise, so I wish our business will be prosperous.” Dustin smiled and raised his glass.

“Come on! Do it!”

Samuel Thompson picked up the teacup, clinked it, and drank it all in one gulp.

“Oh, by the way, Dustin...”

At this time, Samuel Thompson seemed to have thought of something. He lowered his voice and said mysteriously: “Besides Jade Dew Cream, do you have any other elixirs? It’s the kind of thing that can make men become powerful.”

“Become powerful?”

Dustin was startled for a moment, then suddenly realized: “Could it be that Mr. Thompson is referring to aphrodisiacs?”

“Hush!”

Samuel Thompson was so frightened that he quickly made a silence gesture and whispered: “As long as you understand, there is no need to say it. In addition, I solemnly declare that I am not incapable, I just want to be more powerful. Do you understand?”

“understand.”

Dustin smiled and nodded: "There is no medicine to become powerful, but I didn't bring it with me. Next time we meet, I will give you a bottle directly to ensure that you become (cannot be shown), unparalleled in power!"

"Good brother! You really understand me!"

Samuel Thompson's eyes lit up and he said excitedly: "From today on, you are my half-brother! If you have any trouble in the future, just come to me!"

Dustin's Jade Dew Cream is so miraculous, so it shouldn't be a bad aphrodisiac, right?

Hehe, I'm a little excited just thinking about it.

After Dustin reached an agreement with Samuel Thompson, he immediately called Hazel Lancaster over in the bread room.

The three discussed it in detail and signed the relevant contract.

At this point, the tripartite alliance was formally established.

In the next two days, Dustin taught the pharmacist how to make Jade Dew Cream while working on rebuilding Hanbridge medical center.

Running at both ends alone is extremely busy.

Fortunately, with Hazel Lancaster's help, things quickly got on track.

As for the Torby and Stratford families, the progress is faster, and the Jade Dew Cream produced has entered the sales stage.

And also changed the name, called "rejuvenation ointment".

Meaning, rejuvenation with a wonderful hand.

Although the drug content of "Rejuvenation Cream" is not up to standard, under the influence of money making ability, these are nothing.

After building momentum, the "Rejuvenation Ointment" of the Torby and Stratford families has become famous.

Although the price is very expensive, the response has been very good, especially the amazing healing effect, which has attracted countless pharmaceutical dealers to flock to it.

It even alarmed the top brass of the military.

“Rejuvenation Ointment” is an ointment that can quickly stop bleeding and heal injuries. It is definitely a rare treasure for soldiers who are often injured. It can also save lives at critical moments.

Therefore, all departments of the military attach great importance to this.

Wave after wave of people came after hearing the news; batch after batch of orders came one after another.

In just two days, the Torby and Stratford families have received a large number of orders, and business has never been hotter.

Various medical experts even assert that this rejuvenating ointment will become an unprecedented hit!

noon.

Dongcheng, in the office of the chairman of Thompson’s Pharmaceutical Group.

A smartly dressed and beautiful woman was sitting quietly on a swivel chair, listening to the female secretary’s report.

“Director Thompson, we have investigated clearly. The rejuvenation ointment that suddenly appeared on the market is a product jointly researched by the Stratford Family and the Torby Family. Its efficacy is very miraculous, far better than the Thompson’s golden sore medicine.”

“If this momentum continues, the situation of our Thompson’s Medicine will be very bleak!”

As the female secretary spoke, she put the investigation materials in her hand on her desk.

Helen Thompson took a closer look and frowned slightly: “How could this happen? How could they have developed such a good medicine in just a few days?”

As the daughter of Thompson’s parents and the chairman of Thompson’s Pharmaceuticals, she knows the Torby and Stratford families very well.

Although the two parties are both wealthy, they are indeed competitive, so she has been secretly following the development of the Torby and Stratford families.

There were even spies inside the two companies.

Among other things, it is absolutely impossible for the Torby and Stratford families to hide their medical research from her.

But this time, before the rejuvenation ointment came out, she didn’t receive any news at all, as if it appeared out of thin air, which was really strange.

“Director Thompson, what should we do now? Do you want to contact the Torby and Stratford families to see if we can cooperate?” the female secretary suggested.

Helen Thompson shook her head: “They obviously came prepared this time. If we take the initiative to seek cooperation, we will probably be torn apart.”

“But if we don’t choose to cooperate, some of our highly profitable drugs for Down syndrome will not be able to survive. Then the stock price will plummet and we will suffer heavy losses, which will be even worse.” The female secretary looked worried.

“Let me see...”

Helen Thompson gently rubbed her temples, and began to think carefully.

If they choose to cooperate, the Torby and Stratford families will definitely raise prices on the ground, take the opportunity to seize the Thompson family market, and win over Thompson family customers.

If they don’t cooperate, Thompson Corporation will suffer heavy losses. Over time, the market will still be swallowed up, and customers will still be robbed.

What a dilemma.

“Ding ding ding...”

At this time, the phone on the table rang.

When Helen Thompson answered the call, a familiar voice came: “Dr. Thompson, Miss Isabela and Mr. Owen Stratford are here to visit. I wonder if you are free?”

“Invite them in.” Helen Thompson replied.

“yes.”

The phone hangs up.

After a while, the office door opened.

Owen Stratford and Isabela walked in hand in hand, with happy faces and smiles on their lips.

“Director Thompson, we came here uninvited today. We shouldn’t disturb you, right?” Owen Stratford looked polite.

As for Isabela, she was more straightforward and sat on the sofa minding her own business, looking like a leader.

“Mr. Owen, Miss Isabela, I wonder if you two have come to visit us. Do you have any advice?” Helen Thompson said calmly.

“Don’t take advice seriously. We came here this time to discuss business with you, Mr. Thompson.” Owen Stratford smiled half-heartedly.

“Business? What business?” Helen Thompson looked calm, pretending not to know.

“Director Thompson, have you heard about the rejuvenation ointment recently developed by our Stratford and Torby Family?” Owen Stratford asked.

“I heard something, what’s wrong?” Helen Thompson’s expression remained unchanged.

“Now that you’ve heard it, it’s easy to handle.”

Owen Stratford smiled: “The rejuvenation ointment we developed is a holy medicine for healing. As long as it is widely promoted, it will definitely crush all spiritual medicines on the market, including your Thompson’s golden sore medicine.”

“Young Mr. Owen, are you a little too confident? Although your rejuvenation ointment is good, our Thompson’s golden sore medicine is not bad either.”

Owen Stratford smiled meaningfully: “Dr. Thompson, you are a smart man. You should understand the gap between the two. It is the general trend. It is useless not to admit it.”

“So, what do you want Mr. Owen to say? You might as well get straight to the point.” Helen Thompson remained calm.

“readily!”

Owen Stratford snapped his fingers and said with a smile, “Miss Helen Thompson, our rejuvenation ointment will soon sweep the entire market, but for smoother development, I hope to cooperate with Thompson’s Medicine.”

“Oh? What kind of cooperation method?”

Helen Thompson put her fingers on the table with her fingers crossed, showing a look of attentive listening.

“It’s very simple. It will be produced by our two companies, and then promoted nationwide through the Thompson family’s sales channels. In this way, the rejuvenation ointment can occupy a large market in the shortest possible time. By then, we will be able to make a lot of money.” Owen Stratford smiled.

“Sounds good, but how to divide the benefits?” Helen Thompson asked back.

It is inevitable that the rejuvenation ointment will become a hit. Only by cooperating with the Torby and Stratford families can we better recover the losses.

Of course, this tendency cannot be too obvious, otherwise it will be easily manipulated.

“We have discussed internally and plan to give 30% to Thompson’s Medicine...”

Owen Stratford held out three fingers and was about to make a quotation when Isabela, who was sitting on the sofa, suddenly said: “I’ll give you 10% of the profit.”

“Um?”

As soon as these words came out, Helen Thompson immediately frowned.

Even the smile on Owen Stratford’s face couldn’t help but freeze.

The two families had discussed together before that in order to open up the market as soon as possible, it would be best to give the Thompson family 30% of the profits.

After it is completely famous, the share ratio will be gradually reduced.

As a result, Isabela was in a good position, and she kept the share ratio as low as possible as soon as she opened her mouth.

Thirty percent profit dropped directly to 10%.

It was so dark!

“Miss Isabela, are you sincerely discussing business?” Helen Thompson said with a cold face.

“Director Thompson, ten percent profit is already the limit we can give.”

Isabela said calmly: “After all, the rejuvenation ointment is researched and produced by our two families. Your Thompson family has done nothing. It is only responsible for sales. Ten percent is considered very high.”

“If you are not sincere, then there is no need to talk about cooperation anymore!” Helen Thompson said coldly.

“Miss Helen Thompson, you’d better think carefully before answering.”

Isabela snorted coldly: “If you cooperate, your Thompson family can still make some money. If you don’t cooperate, you will be asking for trouble!”

“Miss Isabela, are you threatening me?”

Isabela’s aggressiveness made Helen Thompson’s face darken, and her eyes suddenly became sharp.

With the Thompson family’s sales channels and influence in the pharmaceutical industry, if they want to cooperate with others, sharing 40 to 50% of the profits is not a problem.

Moreover, it also depends on whether what is being sold is valuable enough.

The woman in front of her was quite good. She was obviously here to ask for cooperation, but she also acted arrogant and didn’t take the Thompson family seriously at all.

Even if she is only given 10% of the profit, she is still making threats here.

Do you really think the Thompson family is a soft persimmon?

“Director Thompson, don’t get me wrong, Isabela was just joking with you.”

Seeing that the situation was not going well, Owen Stratford quickly began to smooth things over, and at the same time kept winking at Isabela.

Oh shit! I’m afraid this woman took the wrong medicine, right?

The agreed 30% profit was directly reduced to 10%. How could this be talking about cooperation?

This is clearly taking the Thompson family for a fool!

Besides, the Thompson family is one of the four upper sects, and is stronger than the Torby Family and the Stratford Family in all aspects.

Especially in medicine, it is the industry leader.

It is definitely not a wise choice to break up with such a behemoth.

“joke?”

Helen Thompson snorted coldly: “I don’t think Miss Isabela is joking at all.”

“Miss Helen Thompson, those who know the current affairs are brilliant, and a 10% profit is not low. Our rejuvenation ointment is destined to become a hit, and no one can stop it.”

Isabela said with a proud face: “If you miss this train, the loss to your Thompson family will be immeasurable. I believe you should be very clear about the stakes.”

The Torby Family provides the formula, and the Stratford Family is responsible for production and promotion. According to the agreement, the benefits of the cooperation between the two companies are equally shared.

If 30% is given to the Thompson family, then the Torby Family and the Stratford Family can only get 35%.

This is really a shame.

The Thompson family obviously does nothing and is only responsible for sales. Why does it take such a high proportion of the share?

The rejuvenation ointment is so miraculous, and it's not like it can't be sold, so why should it give such a big profit to the Thompson family?

In her opinion, ten percent to the Thompson family is high enough.

According to her, giving 5% would be considered a kindness.

“Since your rejuvenation ointment is so powerful, why do you come to Thompson's Medicine? You can just cooperate with others!” Helen Thompson said coldly.

“Director Thompson, we are giving you a chance. Ordinary companies are not even qualified to represent our rejuvenation ointment.” Isabela was still arrogant.

“Thanks, but I don't care.”

Helen Thompson refused: “You two, I still have something to do, so I won't send you far away!”

“Dr. Thompson...”

“No need to say anything, please come back!”

Just as Owen Stratford was about to speak, he was interrupted by Helen Thompson's shout.

When had the Thompson family ever received such a threat?

It's just a medicine. Do you really think it can threaten the Thompson family's status?

At best, it is just a loss of part of the market.

The Thompson family can still withstand this kind of turmoil.

"Helen Thompson! Do you know how much damage your decision will cause to the Thompson family? You'd better weigh it carefully!" Isabela frowned slightly.

This woman is so shameless!

"No matter how great the loss of the Thompson family is, it has nothing to do with you. If you want our Thompson family to be a stepping stone, you'd better give up!" Helen Thompson said solemnly.

"You——!" Isabela was a little angry.

She didn't expect that this woman would rather lose money than cooperate with Torby and Stratford.

Chapter 1438

So stupid!

"Yo! Is there a guest?"

At this time, Samuel Thompson suddenly brought someone in.

Holding a folding fan in his hand, he strolls in the courtyard, still so personable.

The female grandmaster Anna followed closely behind, her fierce eyes shooting around, alert to any threats around her.

“Samuel, why are you here?”

Seeing the person coming, Helen Thompson couldn't help but soften her expression.

“Elder Sister, haven't you eaten yet? I specially packed some food for you from the Emperor Pavilion. You should try it first.”

Samuel Thompson took the food box that Anna handed over, and then placed the food inside on the desk one by one.

Six dishes and one soup, with meat and vegetables, full of color, flavor and taste.

“Little Treasure has a heart, big sister really didn't love you for nothing.” Helen Thompson immediately smiled.

The troubles just now were swept away.

She is very pleased to have such a sensible brother.

“Elder Sister, is there something important for these two to visit?”

Samuel Thompson looked at Owen Stratford and Isabela.

As children of a wealthy family, he naturally knew the two of them, but not very well.

“It's all about business, but they didn't reach an agreement.” Helen Thompson explained.

“You are the young master of the Thompson family, right?”

Isabela took two steps forward and said confidently: “We have recently developed a rejuvenation ointment, which is very effective and will soon dominate the market. We originally wanted to cooperate with the Thompson family, but your eldest sister didn't know how to promote it and refused. It is a very stupid decision to reject our invitation, I hope you can inform the top management of the Thompson family to reconsider our proposal.”

“Refused to cooperate?”

Samuel Thompson looked at his elder sister, then at Isabela, and asked tentatively, "How much do you plan to give our Thompson family?"

"I'll give you ten percent of the profit." Isabela stretched out a finger.

"How much? Ten percent?" Samuel Thompson was taken aback, a little suspicious that he had heard it wrong.

"That's right."

Isabela said matter-of-factly: "You, the Thompson family, can get 10% of the profit without any effort, why not do it?"

"Miss Isabela, are you okay? Ten percent? Why are you here just asking for food?" Samuel Thompson said angrily.

Dustin's authentic Jade Dew Cream directly gave him 40% of the profit.

The woman in front of me was selling defective products, but she only gave 10%.

Are you really taking advantage of the Thompson family?

"Mr. Thompson! Pay attention to your quality!"

Isabela frowned: "Our rejuvenation ointment will soon become a hit, and then money will continue to flow in. A 10% profit will be enough for your Thompson family to make a fortune!"

"Without the help of my Thompson family's channels, you would be nothing but a hotshot!"

Samuel Thompson rolled his eyes: "No matter how good your stuff is, if you can't sell it, it will be useless? Do you think our Thompson family is an idiot if you want to make a fool of yourself here?"

"You...how did you talk?!"

Isabela was a little angry.

With her status and beauty, no matter which man sees her, he must be polite and behave like a gentleman.

Now this guy is doing well. He makes all kinds of obscene remarks and swears, and has no quality at all.

“That’s what I say. If you like to hear it, just listen. If you don’t like it, get out!” Samuel Thompson was not used to it at all.

“You, you, you...you are so presumptuous!” Isabela gritted her teeth in anger.

“Is this considered presumptuous? I have something even more presumptuous!”

Samuel Thompson snapped his fingers and ordered: “Come here, throw these two idiots away from me. If they dare to resist, break their legs!”

Following Samuel Thompson’s order, a group of bodyguards behind him immediately rushed forward and surrounded Isabela and Owen Stratford.

The ferocious looks were like a group of tigers peeking at the two little sheep.

“What are you going to do? I’m warning you not to mess around. I am the daughter of the Torby Family. If you touch a hair on my head, you will have to pay a heavy price!” Isabela shouted with a fierce expression.

She didn’t expect that Samuel Thompson would be so unreasonable and would take action if he disagreed with her. He was much more difficult to get along with than Helen Thompson.

“Mr. Thompson, don’t be excited. Don’t be excited. Businesses are not done with justice. There is no need to make things like this.” Owen Stratford quickly reconciled with a smile.

Everyone in Stonia’s powerful circles knows how high Samuel Thompson’s status is.

The entire Thompson family held it like a treasure, and no matter what mistakes they made, they would protect him unreasonably and forcefully.

Looking at the children of the major wealthy families, no one can compare with Samuel Thompson.

In other words, even if Samuel Thompson really beat them today, the Torby and Stratford families would not dare to do anything.

“You two are trying to show your prestige to Thompson’s Medicine. Do you expect me to be polite to you? Get out of here before I get angry!” Samuel Thompson was rude.

Since they are competitors, they naturally have no scruples.

“Thompson! Just wait for me!”

“Today you are indifferent to us, but tomorrow I will make it impossible for you to climb up!”

“When our rejuvenation cream becomes a hit, I will make you regret it!”

Isabela became angry and extremely emotional.

She has never been wronged like this, and she has never been pointed at or scolded by anyone.

“Okay, okay, I’ll wait. I want to see how good your rejuvenation ointment is.” Samuel Thompson sneered.

“Hmph! One day, I will make you kneel on the ground and kowtow to beg for mercy!”

After saying a vicious sentence, Isabela stormed out of the door angrily.

“Young Mr. Thompson, you made a wrong decision this time, so take care of yourself.”

Owen Stratford did not stay long and left immediately.

The cooperation between the two parties completely collapsed.

“Bah! What the hell!”

Samuel Thompson spat on the ground, his face full of disgust.

“Samuel, although these two guys are hateful, they shouldn’t be underestimated.”

At this time, Helen Thompson said: "I have already investigated the situation of rejuvenation ointment. It is indeed going to be ahead of our Thompson's Golden Sore Medicine. Once it becomes a hit, it will deal a big blow to us. You go back first." Inform father and let him prepare early."

"Sister, don't worry, I haven't paid much attention to the rubbish rejuvenation cream." Samuel Thompson didn't care.

"Little Treasure, you still don't understand the seriousness of the matter. In order to avoid causing greater losses, we must take precautions early." Helen Thompson's face became serious.

"Sister, don't worry, I already have a countermeasure."

Samuel Thompson smiled slightly, and pushed his job bowl forward: "The most important thing for you now is to eat well and fill your stomach, and just leave the rest to me."

"You? What countermeasures do you have?" Helen Thompson was curious.

"To be honest, the rejuvenation ointment developed by the Torby and Stratford families actually stole someone else's formula, and it is also a defective product. Not only is the efficacy poor, but the cost is high. The key point is that it will have certain side effects if used too much. It doesn't matter if you don't want it." Samuel Thompson said.

"How do you know these things?" Helen Thompson was taken aback.

"Hey, the person who has the genuine formula has already approached me, and we have reached a cooperation." Samuel Thompson grinned.

"What?"

Helen Thompson was taken aback: "Samuel, you're not kidding me, are you?"

"Sister, how can I joke about such a thing?"

Samuel Thompson said solemnly: "I have verified it myself. The ointment I am holding now has a healing effect far better than the so-called rejuvenation ointment. As long as our Thompson family vigorously promotes it, it will be enough to crush the conspiracy of the Torby and Stratford families and make it more effective." They can't even eat shit!"

“Okay, okay... great!”

Helen Thompson looked overjoyed and felt refreshed.

Just now, she was worried about how to cope with the impact and reduce losses.

I didn't expect the good news to come so soon.

The Thompson family is already the leader in the industry, accounting for almost 70% of Stonia's pharmaceutical market.

As long as you have something in your hands, you don't have to worry about not being able to sell it.

This is why the Torby and Stratford families will send people to cooperate with each other, because if they want to promote the rejuvenation ointment, they are bound to have to avoid the Thompson family.

It's a pity that the two families were too greedy and were unwilling to give up the profits, which eventually led to the collapse of the negotiation.

Now, with the unexpected surprise brought by her younger brother, Thompson's Medicine will no longer be hampered by others.

You can even take this opportunity to suppress the Torby and Stratford families!

“etc.....”

After the surprise, Helen Thompson seemed to have thought of something, and suddenly asked: “Samuel, who is the person you are working with? Is it reliable? What is his character like? Is there any conspiracy?”

“Sister, don't be nervous. I'm not a waste. How can I be easily deceived?”

Samuel Thompson stretched out two fingers, picked up a piece of braised pork on the plate, and threw it into his mouth. While chewing, he replied: “I have investigated carefully. The person who cooperates with me is named Dustin. He comes from Nan Province. He is well-known in the local area, capable of literary and military skills, and is also a miracle doctor.

There are no problems with his background, and his character is also guaranteed.

There are two reasons why he cooperated with me, one is to make money, and the other is to take revenge.

The ancestral prescription in his hand was originally intended to be sold to the Torby Family, but the Torby Family went back on their word and refused to pay for the prescription, and even killed people to silence it.

He was forced to have no choice but to look for protection everywhere. Later, he found out that our Thompson family was very powerful, so he came to seek refuge with me.

And I have tested him, and this guy is trustworthy. “

While Samuel Thompson was talking, he picked up another piece of braised pork and threw it into his mouth, obviously not satisfied.

“So that’s how it is.”

Helen Thompson nodded, and most of the doubts in her heart were finally dispelled.

As a sister, she is naturally worried that her brother will be cheated.

But after thinking about it carefully, although her brother looked unreliable, he never fell off the chain at critical moments.

Especially when it comes to recognizing people, he has a unique eye.

Someone who can make his brother trust him is probably not bad.

“Sister, you can eat in peace, don’t think too much, the food is almost cold.” Samuel Thompson began to urge.

“Okay, eat.”

Helen Thompson smiled, picked up the bowl and chopsticks, and began to eat happily. While eating, she said: “Samuel, if you have time, bring this Dustin over and let me have a look. With such an outstanding talent, our Thompson Dynasty Family deserves preferential treatment.”

“Sister, you don’t have any evil thoughts, do you?” Samuel Thompson suddenly smiled evilly.

“Huh?” Helen Thompson was stunned for a moment.

“Sister, this guy is good at everything, but he’s too serious.”

Samuel Thompson shrugged and said helplessly: “Originally, I wanted to use your beauty, sister, to trick him into marrying into the Thompson family and becoming my brother-in-law. But in the end, this kid didn’t even look at it and refused directly. It’s really a shame. Not even given.”

“...” Helen Thompson’s eyes twitched.

“Sister, don’t worry, I won’t give up. For your lifelong happiness, I will definitely convince him!

Samuel Thompson clenched his fists and vowed: “If it doesn’t work out, let’s just go ahead and cook the raw rice into cooked rice. By then, it will be impossible for him to default on his debt!”

“Hehe...I’m such a genius!”

Following Samuel Thompson’s order, a group of bodyguards behind him immediately rushed forward and surrounded Isabela and Owen Stratford.

The ferocious looks were like a group of tigers peeking at the two little sheep.

“What are you going to do? I’m warning you not to mess around. I am the daughter of the Torby Family. If you touch a hair on my head, you will have to pay a heavy price!” Isabela shouted with a fierce expression.
