An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1949

Chapter 1949

One hour later.

Inside the hotel room.

Kevin Snow walked into the door holding a bunch of Lapis Lazuli, and then put them all on the table.

"Ms. Li, these are all the Lapis Lazulis we collected. I did the math and found that there are about 70% of them. The remaining 30% of the Wulingsjings either can't be contacted or they refuse to sell." Kevin Snow simplified the situation. Said it again.

Initially, he didn't want to waste Margaret's money, so he tried to use good words to persuade those who owned Lapis Lazuli to understand the seriousness of the problem.

It's a pity that no one believed his words.

Even if the name of Jin Dao Sect is used, it will have no effect at all.

Most people even thought that he was a liar. He was jealous and jealous, so he used such dirty methods to defraud Lapis Lazuli.

In desperation, he could only follow Margaret's method and charge Lapis Lazuli at a high price, which dispelled most people's doubts.

But there are still some suspicious guys who refuse to sell.

Despite his various attempts to persuade, those people never appreciated it.

In the end, he had no choice but to give up.

As the saying goes, it's hard to persuade a damn ghost with good words. He asked himself that he was very moral in the world, but no one believed him and he had no ability.

"Brother Kevin Snow, thank you for your hard work. We have done everything we should do. The rest is left to fate." Margaret did not have any surprises.

From the beginning, she did not have the luxury of saving everyone, but out of love for the country and the people, so she did what she could.

"I was just running an errand, it's nothing, but Miss Li, you spent too much money." Kevin Snow felt a little ashamed.

He thought he could convince some people through his own prestige.

It turned out that it was just self-indulgence. Those people didn't give me face at all, and only benefits could move them. "Money and money are all external possessions, they don't count. It's only a person who can save one person." Margaret didn't care.

"Miss Li, there is one more thing."

Kevin Snow seemed to have thought of something, and suddenly said: "When I just went to buy Lapis Lazuli, I also heard a news. Some people rumored that these Wulingjings were brought by Feng Yao from the oasis. The treasure that came out. In order to obtain more benefits, all the forces coming to the desert village have already taken action. They rushed into the desert of death overnight, preparing to explore the oasis to find treasure." "Oh? I didn't expect that their actions would be like this

. Hurry." Margaret raised her eyebrows slightly, quite surprised.

She thought that all the forces would wait and see and explore the situation before entering the Death Desert to hunt for treasure.

As a result, the appearance of Lapis Lazuli aroused everyone's desire, causing forces large and small to be unable to hold back any longer.

After all, if you enter the oasis earlier than others, you will have a chance to get more treasures.

As for the danger, it is no longer worth mentioning in the face of huge benefits.

“Miss Li, when do you plan to take action?” Kevin Snow asked tentatively.

Unknowingly, he had regarded Margaret as his backbone.

“Of course, the sooner the better.”

Margaret said, looking at Uncle Wang standing at the door, and asked: “Uncle Wang, are the camels and everything ready?” “I have already paid the final payment to the village chief. The camel team is ready.” Uncle Wang lowered his head and replied.

“Very good, let’s inform everyone and ask everyone to hurry up and rest in the hotel for two hours. We will set off in the early morning.” Margaret gave the order.

“Yes!” Uncle Wang responded and left quickly.

Two hours later.

A long line of camels, carrying various supplies, broke into the desert of death.

The day and night in the Death Desert are completely two extremes.
