

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2018

Chapter 2018

Is it possible that there is another mystery behind this spiritual liquid?

“Everyone, please stay away.”

Dustin did not explain, but walked to the spiritual pool, stretched out his palm, and grasped the center.

“Crash!”

In an instant, the liquid in the entire pool began to vibrate and began to rotate rapidly.

In just a few seconds, a large vortex appeared at the position corresponding to Dustin’s palm.

The vortex stirred the spiritual liquid, spinning faster and faster.

Finally, he was pulled out by Dustin’s Xuanqing Qi and gradually emerged from the pool.

Soon, everyone saw an astonishing scene.

Dustin grasped with one hand, like pulling out a carrot, and pulled up the entire pool of spiritual liquid directly from the pool.

These spiritual liquids were included in the Xuanqing Qi and gathered into a huge milky white water ball in the air.

The water polo was three to four meters in diameter and weighed several tons. It was lifted above head by Dustin with one hand without spilling at all.

This ultimate control method once again shocked everyone.

After grabbing all the spiritual liquid, Dustin looked into the pool again.

I saw a milky white bead lying quietly at the bottom of the pool.

The bead is only the size of a fist, translucent, and its body emits a slight white light.

If you look closely, there seems to be a small white snake inside, rolling and surging, which looks very extraordinary.

Dustin stretched out his other hand and gently grabbed the white bead.

“Whoosh!”

The white bead pulled out a white light, and Dustin accurately caught it in his palm.

“I didn’t expect that a small bead could contain such terrifying energy.”

Dustin’s eyelids twitched as he sensed it carefully, feeling a little frightened.

Although the beads are small, they contain as much energy as mountains and seas.

The Xuanqing Qi he had just poured into him was swallowed up in the blink of an eye like a mud cow entering the sea.

“Let me take a look.”

Margaret stepped forward, took the white bead in Dustin’s hand, looked at it carefully, and couldn’t help but look happy: “That’s right! It is the Dragon Origin Qi we are looking for!”

Margaret held the white beads in both hands and was overjoyed.

She thought she would be unsuccessful this time, but she didn’t expect to find him. What a huge surprise!

“The Qi of the Dragon Source?” Dustin raised his eyebrows slightly: “Why does it look like this?”

The Qi of the Dragon Source that he understood should belong to the category of air flow.

But the thing in front of me is a bead, and it is really impossible to connect the two.

“The Qi of the Dragon Source is very spiritual. They will look for some treasures from heaven and earth, and then hide them, nourish themselves, and slowly develop and grow.” “If you see the little white snake in the spirit bead, that is the Qi of the Dragon Source. It’s just that it’s not fully formed yet.”

“Visually estimated that in hundreds or thousands of years, this spirit bead will form a new dragon vein!” Margaret explained excitedly.

The value of this spiritual bead is a hundred times more precious than the entire pool of spiritual liquid combined.

The most important thing is that the dragon source energy in the spirit bead plays a vital role in the national destiny of the Dragon Kingdom.

As long as it is in the hands of the royal family, the Dragon Kingdom will not decline.

You can even take this opportunity to break and build again, creating an unprecedented peaceful and prosperous age!
