

Chapter 1318

There was a faint, elegant smile on Jennie's face. "Caught you by surprise, didn't I?"

Gloria: "..."

When enemies met, sparks were bound to fly.

At that moment, Gloria suppressed the flames in her chest, and remembered what her daughter said to her yesterday. She grew calmer and calmer.

She had decided, so what if she was a madwoman? Elegance brought her nothing. Being true to herself and living without regrets were more important.

Some people really deserved a beating!

"I never expected you to find me here," Gloria said calmly.

The other senior-aged students all looked at each other, confused. Gloria had been a student here for quite some time; she was humble, polite and helpful. Plus, amongst this group of older ladies, she was the youngest.

After all, she was still in her 50s and was quite the beautiful woman. That was why the older ladies here all liked this younger the older ladies here all liked this younger lady Gloria.

However, that morning, no one expected a younger and more glamorous dance teacher would join the team.

No one knew who she was. Their leader brought her to the studio early in the morning, saying that she just returned to the country after living abroad for years.

"Gloria Shaw, how did you join this dance team?" Jennie asked questioningly.

She came here today to get rid of Gloria once and for all. Yesterday, after Gloria ran away, Old Master Shaw felt ill the entire morning.

First, he started coughing violently until he even coughed blood, then was listless and depressed the entire morning.

When his family asked him what happened, he just remained quiet and shook his head. But Jennie knew the truth.

She knew it was time she made a contribution to the Shaw family; if she could help Old Master Shaw get rid of Gloria, then her position in the Shaw family would be more secure.

Yet only that, without Gloria, his true

Not only that, without Gloria, his true daughter, then naturally, Jennie herself could take over the title as the daughter of the Shaw family. With such a title, she could easily accomplish the next step in her plan.

That afternoon, after settling the old man down, Jennie started asking around, trying to find out more about Gloria. Both Sebastian and Marcus allied with each other to suppress the news about the commotion caused by Gloria, Sabrina, and the Lynn family outside Sebastian and Sabrina's house, so Jennie failed to learn much about Gloria.

But Jennie was a smart lady. Because she failed to find out about her through her web of connections, a bulb lit up in her mind, and she utilized her childhood memories and successfully located Gloria's home all those years ago. Only then did Jennie realize Gloria was now staying in a much grander home than she used to.

So, she returned home and cursed in front of her daughter, furious that an illegitimate daughter like Gloria would be living such a good life!

Lori rolled her eyes at her mother. "Mom!

daughter like Gloria would be living such a good life!

Lori rolled her eyes at her mother. "Mom! You... How many times have I told you, Sabrina is Marcus's cousin, his aunt's daughter!"

Jennie: "..."

Now, she finally understood! She was careless. Sabrina was Gloria's daughter!

Back then, after Gloria ran away, she got married and gave birth to Sabrina. Sabrina grew up in the mountains since she was a child. She did not graduate from college either; she got involved with the wrong crowd and was jailed for it.

After she was released from prison; she mingled around with the rich and powerful of South City, trying to seduce all the men from high society and get involved with them. As a result, her actions caused public outrage.
