

Chapter 1331

Lori was speechless.

"I was just a bride yesterday. If you can do it today, then we'd be the perfect couple!"

Jennie said.

After that, she sighed. "I wonder where we can put that little burden, Jennifer."

Lori said, "Mom, we still need to keep that orphan because my sob story to Sebastian involves the orphan."

Jennie said, "Oh! This orphan will be very happy then!

"Let me tell you! The moment this orphan stops being useful, you better think of a way to get rid of it! We won't raise any orphans for free!"

"I want to do it as well, Mom," Lori said on the phone.

"Putting Jennifer aside, the most important thing you can do today is to figure out a way to get into Sebastian's bed," Jennie said anxiously.

Before she could even finish her words, Lori said, "Mom, Mom! Hang up quickly, I...

Lori said, "Mom, Mom! Hang up quickly, I... Ford... Young Master Ford! Young Master Ford is calling me."

God!

On the other end, Jennie hung up immediately.

Lori did not answer the phone immediately.

She actually had Sebastian's number on her phone from much earlier on, but she never had the courage to call.

At that moment, displayed on the phone was 'Young Master Sebastian'.

Lori was so excited her heart almost jumped out of her throat.

Her fingers were uncontrollable as she answered, "Hello... Hi... That... Director... Director Ford, no no no, Young Master Ford, you..."

"When the contract arrives, make sure you get your company's stamp. Send over your director's personal signature," Sebastian calmly said.

Lori said, "Director... Director Ford, aren't... Aren't you going to check on our company first? Are... Are you going to seal the deal so easily? Since... Since you want our stamp easily? Since... Since you want our stamp and signature, is that all?"

"You... Don't think it's okay?" Sebastian asked.

"No!" Lori had a tone of disbelief. "It's very okay! Director Smith will definitely be ecstatic! Thank... Thank you, Director Ford."

At that moment, Lori immediately thought of her mother's words.

However, Lori was still calmer than her mother.

Furthermore, she was only a woman who was in her twenty-somethings. She was not as ferocious as her mother.

She did not listen to her mother's ideas of getting into Sebastian's bed that day.

She said very respectfully, "Director Ford, thank you so much. Once I get my salary, I will... I will buy a present for your wife."

On the other end, Sebastian hung up without saying anything.

However, Lori could feel that Sebastian had a very good impression of her.

It was definitely good.

Lori drove right back to the Smith Group.

Lori drove right back to the Smith Group.

The Smith Group had been on the decline, and when it fell into the hands of Zayn's parents, it had basically become a hollowed-out shell. However, they still had very strong foundations, and the Smith family could have lasted very long.

However, with Zayn bringing Sabrina away, the situation had caused the Smith family's assets to be taken away by Zach.

Zach had managed to stay in business with the support of his father-in-law, Alex, the past few years. 1

However, they still only had over a hundred million in assets.

Within South City, the Smith family had been suppressed by Sebastian. They had little room to breathe, and Zach had always wanted to mend his relationship with Sebastian, but never had the chance.

It was Zach's greatest regret.

And now, that regret had been cleared by Lori.

Lori excitedly entered Zach's office, and walked in front of Zach, full of emotion. "Director Smith, I've succeeded! How are you

It was Zach's greatest regret.

And now, that regret had been cleared by Lori.

Lori excitedly entered Zach's office, and walked in front of Zach, full of emotion. "Director Smith, I've succeeded! How are you going to reward me?"

Zach said, "Real... Really?"

"Most definitely!" Lori said.

"Speak, what reward do you want? A million in cash?" Zach asked.

Lori said in a determined voice, "I don't want money! I want Sabrina to die."
