

Chapter 1333

Lori asked, "Tell me honestly. Do you hate Sabrina?"

Zach was speechless.

Hate!

Of course he did.

"Even if you don't say it, I know that you hate her! Since you hate her, why don't you dare say it out loud? I dared to say it in front of you!" In truth, Lori's mind was already filled with regret.

She still had yet to sleep with Sebastian.

She still did not advance any further with Sebastian.

How could she say that she wanted Sabrina to die in front of someone else?

If the news spread to Sebastian and Sabrina's ears, then Lori would definitely die.

However, Lori never expected that Zach had actually been scared into submission by her.

He composed himself and asked Lori, "What plan do you have to deal with Sabrina?"

"You... What did you say?"

"You... What did you say?"

"Do you have a plan to kill her?!" Zach said angrily.

"Ha!" Lori pursed her lips, continuing, "Haha! Hahaha..."

After she laughed, she said, "If I could get such a big deal from Sebastian so easily, I can naturally kill off Sabrina. Director Smith, you don't have to do anything. You don't even have to make an appearance. All you need to do is to set the stage for me, and I will kill Sabrina."

In truth, Lori had Sean to thank for this.

Sean had said that Sebastian could be coerced, but could not be forced.

Sean said that Sabrina was an unfaithful woman.

Since Sean had such an impression of Sabrina, then why would Lori not make Sabrina's unfaithfulness a reality?

With that, not only would she help Uncle Ford vent out some frustrations, she could even help Uncle Ford marry her mother earlier.

Sebastian would even give up on Sabrina.

That was right!

They would make Sabrina's unfaithfulness a reality. Sabrina would be a married woman who went around toying with men outside.

"What kind of stage?" Zach asked with some interest.

"That would be the city defense project that you took up three thousand kilometers away that you felt was worthless," Lori said.

Zach immediately said, "That was just meant for you to complain about in front of Sebastian. Even if you didn't manage to get the deal from Sebastian, I would not have sent you three thousand kilometers away."

Lori shook her head. "No no no. I want to go there. I plan on using three days to tidy up your financial situation. After that, I'll bring someone over from that place."

Zach did not understand. "Bring someone over?"

"That's right!" Lori had a plan.

She did not explain anything else to Zach, and Zach did not ask anymore questions.

Zach had already thought it through. As long as Lori could help him get closer to long as Lori could help him get closer to Sebastian, and even get rid of Sabrina, why did he need to ask any questions?

That evening, Lori got on the plane to somewhere three thousand kilometers away.

She stayed there for one day.

The next night, Lori brought an unknown man back from that desolate place.

On Thursday night, Sabrina had worked overtime at her company. She had been supposed to fetch Aino with Sebastian, but with the sudden overtime, she asked Sebastian to bring Aino home.

When Sabrina got home, Aino and Sebastian had already eaten, and were resting on the sofa in the living room.

Sabrina was incredibly hungry when she got home.

She took off her heels in exhaustion, and she then casually threw her bag on the sofa, going to the dining room to eat.

At that moment, Sabrina's phone rang.

She immediately shouted, "Dear, help me answer the call. Aino, the phone is in my bag. Help Dad get the phone."

Aino took out her mother's phone from the bag and handed it to her father.

Sebastian answered without thinking, but before he could speak an incredibly greasy male voice could be heard. "Sab, I miss you so much."
