

Chapter 1421

Rose snapped at him, "Everyone in the Payne family is extremely ugly! They are all as tall as dwarfs. Which part of him resembled the members of the Payne family?"

Sean was speechless.

"Look again!"

Sean was startled, and then he immediately raised his head to look at Holden seriously and carefully.

Holden was still in a fury. "Old geezer! Old Man! My name is not Holden Payne if I don't beat you to death today!" He struggled to break free from the bodyguards' grasp, but he had already been laying on this grave for two days, and he had not eaten for two days as well. He already had no strength, and he was very drunk.

Holden originally had not planned to live. He thought that it would be great to die here. If he died in front of his biological mother's grave, then it can be considered as him keeping his mother accompanied. H mother's grave. He considered a s him keeping his mother accompanied. H e had messed up his hair as he struggled.

A few strands of loose hair draped down o n his forehead. His pitch-black hair and his pale forehead formed a sharp contrast.
Under his forehead was a pair of thick upward eyebrows and a pair of deep-set eyes. When Sean looked further down at those thin but angular cheeks, he was stunned.

Immediately after that, he blurted out, “ Sebastian...he is Sebastian! Rose, you're mistaken! He is not Holden, he is my son, Sebastian!”

Rose looked calmly at Sean. “Sean! You've been blinded by your pent-up emotions!
This Sebastian. This is Holden. He and Sebastian only have a slight resemblance.”

“No, no, no. This is not Sebastian. He resembled his mother. He looks more like Grace!” Sean said just in time after he had wiped off the raindrops in his eyes.

Rose shook her head again. “Sean, you're old now, and I am also old now. We had never looked back at our appearances when we were young, so we have already old now, and now. We had never looked back at our appearances when we were young, so we have already forgotten it. Now that I looked at him closely, Holden looked at least half as similar as you when you were young.”¹

Sean said, “What...what are you talking about?”

He was so shocked that he continuously took a few steps back.

Rose said again, “I finally understand now why Aino, Sebastian, and Sabrina, as well as Old Master Shaw, kept telling us over and over again that Holden’s attack on us had nothing to do with Sabrina. I also finally understand why this b*stard would only beat me up with all his might and main every time he attacked us, but he had never beat you up once. Even the six-year-old Aino had also told you over and over again that this is your problem. Old Master Shaw would sigh and lament every time this matter was mentioned. Holden Payne! He is the secret of Star Island! This secret was only known to Old Master Shaw. This secret should have already existed since Sebastian was born...”

...existed since s... born...

Sean said in disbelief, "Could it be that... Grace had given birth to..."

"Twins," Rose said with unparalleled certainty. "However, Sebastian was taken back to South City, and Holden was left on Star Island. This was because we did not allow Grace to give birth to her baby back then. It was Old Master Shaw who came to plead for mercy later on. I think at that time, Grace was afraid that the two children would be harmed by me after they came to South City, so she left one of them there on Star Island."

Speaking of this, Rose smiled forlornly. "Grace has truly misinterpreted my intentions with her own despicable thoughts! Since I have already promised to let both her and her son come to South City, then why would I harm them?"

Sean was speechless. At this moment, he was not listening to Rose at all. Sean was just gazing at Holden. When he looked at this young man again, he truly had a resemblance to Sebastian. Although they were not identical twins, who could not be told apart, their demeanor and nature

City, then why them?"

Sean was speechless. At this moment, he was not listening to Rose at all. Sean was just gazing at Holden. When he looked at this young man again, he truly had a resemblance to Sebastian. Although they were not identical twins, who could not be told apart, their demeanor and nature were very similar. Sebastian's appearance was more masculine, and Holden appeared to be slightly more feminine. His feminine features made him appear to be more melancholic.

Sean's heart suddenly felt a sharp pain.

Just at this moment, his phone rang, and Sean answered it without looking. "Hello?"

Over on the other end, it was unexpectedly Sabrina's voice. "I'm asking you! Is Holden at my mother-in-law's grave?"

Chapter 1422

Sean was speechless. He never expected that it would be Sabrina, or that she would ask him this question.

Rose asked him, "Who's calling?"

"Sabrina."

Rose instantly understood why Sabrina would call at this time. She then immediately said, "Tell her Holden is not here!"

Sean blinked at her. Holden, who was being held by the bodyguards, was still throwing a fit. "Who exactly am I? I am a scum that was abandoned by my parents! I am a scum!

I am not the fourth child in the Payne family! I am also not the youngest son of the Ford family in South City! I'm asking you, Sean Ford! You old d*mned thing! Who am I? The world is so huge, but there is no place for me to call home! Haha! I am Holden Payne! No! My last name is not Payne, but is Ford my last name? Is my last name Ford?

last name Ford

He sobbed. "I am surpassingly an illegitimate child who doesn't even deserve to have a last name! I am neither the child of the Payne family nor the Ford family! Who am I? Old geezer! I will first kill you today, then I will kill myself by knocking my head on her grave!"

Holden kept cursing angrily. Although his tone was furious, it also carried a lot of confusion, grievances, and helplessness. He was cursing as he cried like a child.

"Mr Ford! Mr Ford?" Sabrina's anxious voice could be heard at the other end of the line. She could almost conclude that Holden should be in front of Grace's grave.

Sabrina had not been attending to Holden for two whole days due to the circumstances. She had gone to the police station an hour ago with Sebastian. Before Steve's tongue was cut off and his limbs were shattered, Steve had requested that he wished to confront Lori.

When they arrived at the police station and witnessed Lori and Steve's attempts to clear their own name, Sabrina and Sebastian left the station.

When they arrived at the police station and witnessed Lori and Steve's attempts to clear their own name, Sabrina and Sebastian left the station.

Before they left, Lori shouted at Sebastian like she had gone mad. "Master Sebastian, please give me a chance, I really love you! When I was abroad, I had already heard of you, Master Sebastian. I had never been married before, and I am a graduate of one of the world's top colleges for economics. As long as you are willing to, I can be your lover, the lowliest kind of lover. I will be at your beck and call, Master Sebastian. I'm begging you, rescue me from the police station, please?" 1

When she heard Lori saying those, Sabrina was so angry that she laughed. She went back in again and then raised Lori's head. Sabrina then sneered and said, "Lori! You've finally admitted it. You've returned from abroad just to ruin my marriage! Such a woman like you is truly too wicked! For the sake of stealing my husband, you have gone to the length to start with adoption! You actually let your child get close to my child, and you actually still could pretend to be a noble

ERGY+

ÖVALAISIN 10 W
etslampa

husband, you... the length to start with adoption. You actually let your child get close to my child, and you actually still could pretend to be a noble and elegant lady in front of me! In the end, you are actually this kind of b*tch!
You truly are shameless enough! My family! The good relationship between Sebastian and I was almost destroyed by you! Such a woman like you deserved to spend a whole lifetime in prison! Didn't you say that I am a woman who came out o f prison, so I'm not worthy to be Sebastian's wife? Then I'll let you get a taste of being in prison now! Lori, don't worry. I have plenty of evidence to let you rot in prison!"

| | | | |
|-----------------|------------|------|---------|
| 750 LUMEN (lm) | 4000 K (K) | 107° | 10 (Pa) |
| 1000 LUMEN (lm) | 4000 K (K) | 107° | 10 (Pa) |
| 1500 LUMEN (lm) | 4000 K (K) | 107° | 10 (Pa) |
| 2000 LUMEN (lm) | 4000 K (K) | 107° | 10 (Pa) |

Chapter 1423

"No..." Lori could not care much about anything else anymore. She did not want to go to prison, she was afraid of going to prison. She would rather die than to go to prison.

She grabbed Sabrina's hand. "I'm begging you, Sabrina, please! Let me be Master Sebastian's human bed warmer, alright? I ...I can be your spy. I will guarantee that Master Sebastian will only have the two of us for the rest of his life. No, no, no. You will be the main person. I...You only have to let me have Master Sebastian for a week, no, no, no, two weeks, also no, one month. You just have to let Master Sebastian accompany me once a month, alright? I promise to be a loyal dog by Master Sebastian's and your side. I'm begging you. Please don't send me to prison..."

Sabrina was simply stunned. She could hardly believe that this was the aloof woman, who had been contemptuous towards the world, that she had met at Aino's kindergarten half a month ago. She simply could not believe it!

Aino's kindergarten month ago. She simply could not believe it!

Lori's extent of having no limits made Sabrina want to vomit. "You...you truly are disgusting. I have truly been disgusted by you, Lori Gibson! I'm sorry, but I am not you! There will never be a third person in my marriage with Sebastian! Even if there is one, then I will not tolerate it for a day, not even an hour! Sebastian will love me! He will love me for the rest of his life, and do you know why? Because if he dares to betray me, then I will not even want him for even a second more! I will divorce him and sever all ties with him! What about you? What are you in his eyes?"

Sabrina continued. "I understand your intentions. You just don't want to go to prison, right? However, Lori, a person must serve their time for the crimes they had committed. There is no escape for you! You can only blame yourself and ask why you must break the law."

Sabrina shrugged and her expression indicated that she just could not help Lori. After that, Sabrina turned around and walked away.

indicated that not help Lori. After that, Sabrina turned around and walked away.

“Sabrina Scott! What are you so smug about?” Lori suddenly shouted from behind her. “You said it so confidently and nicely, but would you believe it yourself that your man, Sebastian, would only have you in his life? Perhaps you don’t know this! Your father-in-law, Sean, had constantly been surrounded by women! Just the day before yesterday, he and my mother even spent a night together! As Sean’s son, how much better do you think Sebastian would be compared to his father?”

“Countless times better!” Sabrina turned around and smiled confidently. “Because Sebastian and his mother had been a victim themselves! Therefore, Lori, your words would not affect me. It’s better for you to think about how you are going to spend the rest of your life in prison!”

Upon saying that, Sabrina then walked out of the holding cell with big strides. She did not wish to hear Lori’s miserable wailing. Besides, when Lori mentioned that Sean of the holding c... strides. She did not wish to hear Lori's miserable wailing. Besides, when Lori mentioned that Sean had many other women when he was young, Sabrina then thought of something. She thought of the call Sean made an hour ago to ask about Grave's grave. At the same time, she also remembered that Holden had asked the same question two days ago.

With such a daring thought, Sabrina immediately told Sebastian about it. Sebastian then immediately took out his phone and called Sean. Right at the moment when Sean answered the call, it was Sabrina who spoke. "I'm asking you! Is Holden at my mother-in-law's grave?"

Over at this end, after Sean had gone through a series of struggles with his own thoughts while Sabrina was shouting over and over again, Sean answered Sabrina with absolute certainty. "Holden. How could he possibly be in front of Grace's tombstone?"

Chapter 1424

Sabrina asked, "Mr Ford, I'm going to ask you once again. Is Holden at my mother-in-law's cemetery?"

Sean said, "Hmph! Sabrina, how can you talk to me like this? Yes! I was wrong about you! However, I am still your father-in-law!"

Sabrina said, "Mr Ford..."

Sean interjected Sabrina. "Tell me a reason. Tell me, how could it be possible for Holden to come to Grace's grave? Why would he want to come to her grave? What secret are you hiding from me?"

Sabrina was speechless. The more Sean spoke with such a tone, the more Sabrina felt like he was covering up the truth.

However, she maintained her composure and said on the other end of the phone. "I understand. You should not stay there for too long as well. It's easy to catch a cold in the late autumn showers."

Sean said, "I'm hanging up!"

After hanging up the call, Sean looked at Rose. "Why didn't you let me tell Sabrina?"

Rose looked at Holden. "Look at him. Do you understand what he is saying? He said he is homeless. He said the world is so he is homeless. He said the world is so huge, and yet, there was no place for him to call home. He said Star Island belonged to the Payne family, but what about South City? That belonged to his older twin brother. What about him? What does he have? All he had was humiliation."

Listening to Rose repeating the drunken words of Holden, Sean looked at Rose irritably. "You're just repeating his words. This indeed is his current situation, and maybe this is his fate!"

"How is this his fate?"

"Holden is supposed to be the fifth young master of the Ford family!" said Rose.

Sean said, "You...Rose! Aren't you just wishing for disorder in this world? Do you think that is possible? I understood why Old Master Shaw had been hiding this secret from us. If it were you, how are you going to reveal it? South City is Sebastian's now, then Holden suddenly popped up out of the blue. What should we do?"

Sean was so worried that he felt light-headed. He did not know that Holden was his biological son in the past. It was not until this moment that only he found out that he actually had another son. It was self that he actually had another son. It was self-evident that he felt joy in his heart.

However, what now? His son only returned after he turned more than thirty years old. Could it be that it would be just like seven years ago again where all the biological brothers turned against each other, then the brothers died and only Sebastian was left? Sean did not wish to see the brothers fighting each other again.

However, what was this to Rose? After all, both of them were not her sons, both of them were Grace's sons.

However, Sean never would have expected what Rose would say next. "Let Holden be my son, Sean."

Sean was so inconceivably shocked. "What nonsense are you talking about? This boy has beaten you up with all his might and main every time, and you still want to take him as your son?"

Rose said, "I need someone to rely on. I'm already old. Who can I rely on? Sebastian? Sebastian would not beat me up like this boy, but when had he treated me nicely? Your parents have you to depend on. They even have Sebastian and Aino. But what about me? Sean, have you realized that in

Rose said, "I need someone to rely on. I'm already old. Who can I rely on? Sebastian? Sebastian would not beat me up like this boy, but when had he treated me nicely? Your parents have you to depend on. They even have Sebastian and Aino. But what about me? Sean, have you realized that in this old residence, especially when Sebastian and Sabrina returned, I am no different from an outsider?"

Sean was speechless. Rose was right.

 NEW Lucky Draw: More REWARDS!

WIN 8800

Chapter 1425

Indeed, it was like that.

"So, Sean, let Holden be my son. I know he has beaten me up and he hates me! That was all because he is homeless. He is also your son. We can take out all our savings, all the private properties that we've accumulated over the years, and we can sell off all our businesses abroad, then we can give Holden a fresh start abroad. What do you think?"

Rose looked at her husband eagerly. Sean had never expected Rose to be this generous. Rose smiled. "I am doing all this for myself. All of my sons are gone now. I don't wish to be thrown out of the house by Sebastian when I'm eighty. If that truly were to happen, then what should I do when the time comes?"

At this point, Rose was already in tears.

"If we help this youngest son get back on his feet, then at the very least, you can stop the two brothers from destroying each other, right?"

Sean agreed. "You're right...This method indeed can stop the twin brothers from destroying each other."

destroying each other."

There was a pause before Sean said again, "However, we don't have much savings. The money Sebastian gave us every month was only enough for us to spend, but ultimately, it's not enough to help Holden make a comeback."

"You don't have it, but I do," said Rose.

Sean asked, "Where...from where did you get all these assets?"

Rose said, "It was bought by my family a long time ago. They are gone as well. Now, I only have Frost, my distant niece left. She is also an incompetent person who just can't do anything right. Now, I might as well give them to Holden."

Sean immediately said with gratitude, "Rose..."

Rose rolled her eyes at Sean. "It's not the time to talk about other things now. Let's get Holden away first. I'm guessing that Sabrina and Sebastian don't quite believe your words. We must get away from them first."

Sean replied, "Okay!"

After the old couple discussed it over, they then assisted Holden to the car and then then assisted Holden to the car and then drove off. Just half an hour after they had just left, Sabrina and Sebastian then came to the cemetery. Other than the lonely bouquet with a cold tone laying here, there was nothing else. In that miserable drizzle, there was only Grace's smile on the tombstone. Sabrina and Sebastian decided to keep Grace accompanied for a while.

This was particularly so for Sebastian. He had always been a man of a few words. He did not speak much, and he expressed himself mainly through his actions.

However, he said without a care in the world in front of his mother's tombstone. "Mom! You've put me through a lot of misery. You didn't tell me that I have a younger brother before you passed away. If I knew about it earlier, I would certainly have brought Holden over, and he would have half of the Ford Group. However, now, he is going on a rampage in South City and he started a public outrage in the people of South City! Mom, what do you want me to do? If you're watching over me in the heavens, then let me find him as soon as possible! Let me subdue him, and then send him abroad. I will purchase some good businesses for him. I can only do this much. However Mom, don't worry. I will then assisted Holden to the car and then drove off. Just half an hour after they had just left, Sabrina and Sebastian then came to the cemetery. Other than the lonely bouquet with a cold tone laying here, there was nothing else. In that miserable drizzle, there was only Grace's smile on the tombstone. Sabrina and Sebastian decided to keep Grace accompanied for a while.

This was particularly so for Sebastian. He had always been a man of a few words. He did not speak much, and he expressed himself mainly through his actions.

However, he said without a care in the world in front of his mother's tombstone. "Mom! You've put me through a lot of misery. You didn't tell me that I have a younger brother before you passed away. If I knew about it earlier, I would certainly have brought Holden over, and he would have half of the Ford Group. However, now, he is going on a rampage in South City and he started a public outrage in the people of South City! Mom, what do you want me to do? If you're watching over me in the heavens, then let me find him as soon as possible! Let me subdue him, and then send him abroad. I will purchase some good businesses for him. I can only do this much. However Mom, don't worry. I will much. However, Mom, don't worry, I will give him half of the profits of the Ford Group in the future. He will not be mistreated. Tell him to not pester Sabrina. She is his sister-in-law!"

Sabrina, who was behind him, was speechless. She did not know what she should say. She just lightly patted Sebastian's shoulder. "Sebastian, the most important thing we need to do now is to find Holden first. Only then can we send him abroad as soon as possible."

Sebastian nodded. "Let's go to the Ford residence! That's the place that most frequently appeared. Didn't he say it himself? He wants to slowly torture them!"

"Okay," said Sabrina.

The two of them got in the car and then Kingston drove them to the Ford residence. When they arrived at the main entrance of the Ford residence, the housekeeper told Sabrina and Sebastian, "Master Sebastian and madam, the old director and madam are not home. They had gone out of town..."

Sabrina instantly asked eagerly, "Where did they go to?"

Chapter 1426

The housekeeper answered dejectedly, "You have been dealing with your own affairs since yesterday, so madam did not dare to tell you about it."

Seeing the housekeeper like this, Sabrina and Sebastian were baffled. "What happened?"

The housekeeper sighed. "Madam's chest has been bruised after being beaten up by that lecher. It's an internal injury within the chest. She is already quite old, so even having surgery may not be able to thoroughly heal it. Madam and the old director heard that the military hospital in Kidon City has the top cardiothoracic surgery department, so they hurried over."

Sabrina and Sebastian were both speechless. They never expected that it would end up like this.

Sebastian nodded. "I got it."

After that, he and Sabrina went into the old residence together. As expected, both Sean and Rose were truly not inside the old residence. Only Old Master Henry and the old madam were sitting in the large living room.

Henry was just one year shy of a hundred years old. He was already old and he had hearing loss. In the past year, Henry had not been bothered with anything anymore. He only cared about taking a stroll after his meals, bathing in the sun, cooling off in the shades, and sleeping. He had been calmly resting.

However, the old madam became more talkative recently. This was also because the old madam liked Sabrina. She was the person that treated Sabrina the best in this entire old residence. Therefore, at this moment, Sabrina was willing to listen to what the old madam had to say.

"Sebastian and Sabrina, I know Rose is not close with you, but she has lived here her whole life. According to the inheritance order, that pair of chrismatite bracelets originally should have been passed on to her. However, I know that your mother has had too deep of a grievance, so I passed it onto Sabrina in the end."

Upon saying that, the old madam looked at Sabrina. "Isn't that right, my granddaughter-in-law?"

Sabrina sincerely nodded her head. "Yes, Grandma."

Henry was just one year shy of a hundred years old. He was already old and he had hearing loss. In the past year, Henry had not been bothered with anything anymore. He only cared about taking a stroll after his meals, bathing in the sun, cooling off in the shades, and sleeping. He had been calmly resting.

However, the old madam became more talkative recently. This was also because the old madam liked Sabrina. She was the person that treated Sabrina the best in this entire old residence. Therefore, at this moment, Sabrina was willing to listen to what the old madam had to say.

"Sebastian and Sabrina, I know Rose is not close with you, but she has lived here her whole life. According to the inheritance order, that pair of chrismatite bracelets originally should have been passed on to her. However, I know that your mother has had too deep of a grievance, so I passed it onto Sabrina in the end."

Upon saying that, the old madam looked at Sabrina. "Isn't that right, my granddaughter-in-law?"

Sabrina sincerely nodded her head. "Yes, Grandma."

would have been at sixes and sevens. No matter how at odds both Sebastian and Sabrina were with Rose, Sabrina also respected what the old madam said.

Sabrina looked at Sebastian. "Sebastian, Grandma is right. Let's just...not disturb your stepmother. I think during the period when she is seeking treatment, she probably also wouldn't want to see us as well."

Sebastian was not as soft-hearted as Sabrina. He knew that there must be some important matters for his stepmother and his father to rush over Kidon City together. However, at this moment, he also could not say anything else in front of his grandma. He could only devise another plan after he had returned home.

Chapter 1427

After they hastily said goodbye to the old master and old madam, Sebastian and Sabrina then left the old Ford residence.

When they arrived home, the sun had almost set. Zayn and Aino were having a delightful time playing in Sebastian's large apartment in the city.

"Uncle Zayn, will you be staying with my mom and dad in the future?" Aino asked Zayn with her head tilted. The two of them had been back for more than an hour, but Aino was still in her uncle's arms. In the little girl's heart, other than her own father, her uncle was her closest family. He may be even closer to her than her grandma, Gloria. After all, she had been living with her uncle since she was born and she had not seen him for a year, so Aino was extra close with Zayn.

Zayn smiled and asked Aino instead, "Then, do you want me to stay here?"

Aino answered with no hesitation. "Of course!"

Upon saying that, she then got down from her uncle's arms, then dragged him to check out all the rooms one by one.

"Look, how many rooms does my house have? Other than mine and my parent's room, you can pick any one of them from the remaining rooms," Aino very generously said to her uncle.

Zayn felt incomparably touched in his heart. "Thank you, Aino, but I can't stay here."

Aino immediately pouted. "Why?"

"Well..." Zayn thought for a moment. "Because this is your house. It's you and your parents' house. In your house, I am an outsider, a guest. A guest can only visit. It's not quite appropriate to stay here for the long term."

Speaking of that, Zayn was afraid that Aino would be sad so he explained again, "However, if you miss me, then I will come often."

"Alright then." Aino instantly beamed. She then held her uncle's hand and sat in the living room to play with the toys with him.

The sound of a child's laughter could occasionally be heard in the large living room. Aunt Lewis and Aunt Tianna, who were both busy working in the dining room, were both amused. Especially Aunt Tianna, who had been working for nearly a decade.

who had been working for nearly a decade. She had known Sebastian's temper better than Aunt Tianna.

She secretly told Aunt Lewis, "You have no idea how cold of a man was the young master in the past. I had never seen a woman in the house in the past seven years, let alone letting a man in the house."

Aunt Lewis smiled gently. "However, there is actually a man sitting in the living room now."

Aunt Tianna chuckled. "That's right."

After saying that, she leaned in towards Aunt Lewis. "Also, this man can be considered to be the young master's love rival."

Aunt Lewis said emotionally, "That's right. The master has had quite a drastic change in the past few years..."

"It's not the past few years, it's just since last year." Aunt Tianna glanced at Aino again. "It was after the madam and little princess had returned that the young master had changed. Not only did he tolerate many things about the madam, he even tolerated the men around the madam. That's truly not an easy feat."

Aunt Lewis raised her eyebrows. "I admire the madam instead. She is not high and mighty, has no air of arrogance, and she is easy-going, but she truly has conquered the young master's heart. If it was another woman, how could the woman possibly have the young master be so submissive to her?"

"I agree. Now that you said that, I admire our madam even more now," said Aunt Tianna with a yearning expression.

Just as the two maids were talking, Sebastian and Sabrina arrived at home. Sebastian's phone rang again. Before he had taken a look at the number, Sebastian had assumed that it was his father calling him. However, after he had taken a look at the number, Sebastian saw that it was not his father, but it was slightly related to his father.

That was a number from Kidon City.

Sebastian immediately answered the call. "Hello? You are..?"

Chapter 1428

"Sebastian, it's your Uncle Patrick."

The voice of the Poole family's old man could be heard coming from the other end of the line. Sebastian was speechless. Ever since Alex was promoted frequently and became a powerful figure in Kidon City at a young age, the Old Master Poole had been living a secluded life for the past ten years.

Another reason for him to be living a secluded life was his second young brother, Axel Poole. Patrick and Axel were half-brothers and the age gap between them was more than ten years. Patrick was seventy-six years old this year, while Axel had just turned sixty. Back then, Patrick's eldest son, Jasper Poole, had no intention of manipulating power and Alex was still very young at that time, so Patrick had been promoting his brother, Axel, whenever possible. However, he never would have expected that after Axel was promoted, he'd turned against Patrick and bit the hands that fed him. Axel said that Patrick was the traitor to the country back then or something similar. Patrick was so infuriated that he almost died, but he also did not wish to air his family's dirty laundry.

Fortunately, Lily's father was a very skilled doctor at that time. Through the meticulous care of Lily's father, only then did Patrick recover. However, he was depressed after that because of the inability to materialize his ambition, so he had hardly gone out of the house. However, these kinds of depressive days did not last long, and his son, Alex, made Patrick very happy again. Patrick's youngest son, Alex, indeed had lived up to his expectations. Within a few short years, Alex actually managed to control the area at the border very well. The young Alex was also considered to be incomparable in Kidon City.

Alex did not let his father down. He truly took up all the burden for his family and also made Axel's family no longer having the wits to be so arrogant. Within a few years that followed, Alex was even able to overpower his uncle and came out on top. He truly became the most powerful figure in Kidon City. After his son had successfully attained the top spot, it was only natural that the Old Master Poole life became comfortable.

The only thing that the old man was concerned about was his youngest son's marriage.

The Poole family and Parker family of Kidon City were considered to have been friends for generations, and Alex had liked the daughter of the Parker family since they were little. However, the daughter of the Parker family was too willful growing up, and she insisted on travelling the world. With that, Alex's marriage had been delayed for more than ten years.

Fortunately, she had already returned, so it should be time for Alex to concentrate on the important matters now.

However, what happened to Alex? He was troubled by a maid. What the hell was that?

At this moment, not only did Alex have a feud with the young lady of the Parker family and asked to be isolated from her from now on, but he also was in a wretched state. He had been drinking every day and was always in a dazed state. How could that be a good thing? To put it bluntly, the entire Poole family was dependent on Alex. Alex's family only has all the honors and glories because of him.

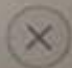

However, at this moment, Alex desperately hoped to not return to Kidon City again. He had been staying in South City, in that mansion up in the mountains. He said that the maid had left him when they were at had been staying in South City, in that mansion up in the mountains. He said that the maid had left him when they were at that mansion in South City, so he had to wait there.

Old Master Poole had not been able to contact Alex for three days. He asked that brat, Ryan, to bang on Alex's door, but Alex just would not open the door to see Ryan. With resignation, Old Master Poole personally called Sebastian.

"Sebastian, I have a favor to ask you. I know you and Alex have the closest relationship. You had saved his life back then when you were living in exile, and he treats you like his younger brother."

 NEW Lucky Draw: More REWARDS!

 WIN 8800

Chapter 1429

Sebastina asked calmly, "What happened to Alex?"

He truly was worried about his blood brother. Because of the matters at home and the chaos caused by Jennie and Lori during this weekend, Sebastian had no time to think about Alex. Now that he heard Old Master Poole mentioning him, Sebastian could not help but worry about Alex.

The old man sighed. "Sebastian, go and check Alex's summer house and see what happened to him. I'm worried that..."

Towards the end of his sentence, the old man's voice was already trembling. Sebastian immediately said, "Alright, alright. I will go and have a look now."

After he hung up the call, he and Sabrina looked at each other. Sabrina knew Sebastian the best, so she said, "Your father and stepmother went to Kidon City and at best was to seek medical treatment. They are all grownups, so I don't think they would do anything out of the line. We'll first go to Alex's and take a look."

To be honest, Sabrina was also worried that something might happen to Alex

Sebastian nodded. "Mm-hmm."

The couple did not even have dinner. They went straight to Alex's place. It was a forty-five minute drive from Sebastian's large apartment in the city to the mansion halfway up in the mountains. When they arrived, Sabrina went to ring the doorbell. When the maid who came to answer the door saw Sabrina and Sebastian, she immediately opened the door for them.

"Master Sebastian, you have no idea. Master Ryan had come over, but Master Alex just wouldn't open the door for him. As the maids, we also did not dare to do anything without permission. You've finally come. Master Alex has been drinking for three days and three nights. I think he also has a slight fever..."

When he heard the maid say that, Sebastian immediately rushed into the house and into his room. He saw Alex laying on the bed, and the large bedroom was so messy that it looked like a toilet. The smell of alcohol filled the room and it was enough to kill a man.

Sebastian directly pulled Alex up from the bed and grabbed his back collar to hold him up. After that, he forcibly carried him out of the bedroom.

the bedroom.

"Sebastian, you're here. Don't mind me..."

Sebastian took over the thermometer from the maid and measured Alex's temperature. He actually had a fever as high as thirty-nine degrees Celsius.

Sebastian raised his palm and slapped Alex on both his cheeks. "If you don't want to live anymore, then just tell me. I will end your life for you! But if you're dead, then Jane could never come back anymore!"

The slaps sobered Alex's mind a little. He sneered. "Even if I'm alive, the chances of her returning are too slim. I've almost turned the northeast area upside down! However, I just could not find her!"

After saying that, Alex wanted to vomit again. The maid brought the trash can over to let him vomit for a while. Seeing that Alex's fever was getting more and more severe, Sebastian did not speak much to him anymore. He just called Kingston over, and both of them carried Alex out by holding his arms respectively, and directly sent him to the hospital.

The doctor checked on Alex. "It's not a big deal. He was depressed and he had been drinking, so he caught a cold. Intravenous drinking, so he caught a cold. Intravenous infusion has been given and he needed to be observed tonight. He also needed to be monitored for a day after his fever subsided tomorrow. If there's nothing else, then he can go home."

Someone needed to stay here as Alex needed to be monitored tonight and tomorrow.

"Let Kingston send you home first, and you should take a good rest. I will stay here." Sebastian knew his woman was exhausted from his conquering activity in the past two nights. Sabrina had not rested properly for two days, so she should not stay up late.

Sabrina nodded. "Okay."

That night, Sebastian stayed by Alex's side at the hospital.

Within just one day and a night, Sean and Rose brought Holden back to Kidon City, and they had found Alex's uncle, Axel Poole.

At this moment, a beautiful lady was sitting in Axel's house. That beautiful lady was not the young lady of the Poole family, Emma, because she was still in South City at this time. That beautiful lady was Lily.

When Lily saw the man Sean and Rose the young lady of the Poole family, Emma, because she was still in South City at this time. That beautiful lady was Lily.

When Lily saw the man Sean and Rose brought over, she was stunned. "It's...it's you?"

Chapter 1430

Lily was staying at the Poole's for a little while. She had an intense fight with her parents recently because she insisted on marrying Alex. Lily's parents had tried to talk to her, but in the end, she simply had a fall out with her parents and moved to the Poole's.

The Parker family and the Poole family had been friends for generations. Originally, the Parker family was closer to Patrick and had hardly any interactions with Axel. It was because the matter of Alex dumping Lily spread like wildfire throughout the entire Kidon City, and many people in the high society defended Lily against the injustice. Among them, the person who defended Lily the most was Emma, so much so that Emma and Lily's relationship grew stronger and they became very close.

They treated each other like sisters.

Therefore, even though Emma had been in South City recently to keep her sister and brother-in-law accompanied while they dealt with the Smith Group's matters, Lily was still staying at the Poole's. Lily hardly left the Poole's, so she had never expected that she could still meet her enemy here.

At this moment, Holden had already sobered up as one whole day had passed. However, both his hands were tied up by Sean, so it would practically be impossible for him to escape or attack others. When he saw Lily, Holden snorted contemptuously, "Do you know me?"

Lily was speechless.

"Could it be that you're also here to seek revenge on me? Fine! I've already gotten to this stage anyway, it doesn't matter anymore to have an additional person seeking revenge on me. Come at me then!" At this moment, Holden thought that he was going to die.

He did not even know that while he was sleeping in a drunken state last night, Sean and Rose had actually already brought him to the faraway place that was Kidon City. He only remembered visiting his biological mother's grave. He had been very sad, he had drunk a lot and had a lot of dreams. In the end, he did not even know how he ended up in this unfamiliar place, and this unfamiliar woman that he saw even knew him.

Holden only felt that since he was caught by Sean, then Sean would certainly have him killed. It was fine by him to be killed him killed. It was fine by him to be killed since he was already tired of living.

Therefore, Holden could not care any less if the person in front of him was a man or a woman. As long as they are someone he could not stand, he just wanted to beat them up. However, it was not possible for him to attack others now, so he just said to Lily in a tone like he was ready to die. "If you want to hit me, then hurry up! However, you have to think about it first. Would I kick and break your ribs when you come near me!"

Lily asked, "You...you really don't know who I am?"

Holden asked, "Why should I know you? Do you have additional limbs or were you originally a dude, but now a lady, so I should be curious about you?"

Lily was speechless. She had a mixed feeling in her heart.

That night! That night she spent with this man before her eyes, it was true that she was the one who initiated it. It was because she was angry at Alex and she was hateful. On top of that, she was also drunk. So in a fit of anger, he found a man to fool around with for a night.

However, Lily never would have expected that the man she had randomly found at the bar did not obey her at all. Never mind that he was not submissive to her, after they knocked boots and he sobered up, the first thing the man did was to hit her.

He hit her!

Lily had seen all kinds of men during the ten years when she was traveling abroad! Almost all kinds of men had submitted to her and were afraid of her! However, after she had returned to the country, she was first dumped by Alex. Then she had actually been beaten up by this man that she had picked up at the bar to spend a night with!

On the day that he had beaten her up, he disappeared. Lily had also been pestering Alex, so she had completely forgotten about this man.

Chapter 1431

In the end, Lily unexpectedly bumped into him today here at the Poole's. Since they had met, Lily must make him pay for the humiliation she had suffered that day! She must let this man kneel before her. After he had knelt and submitted to her, then only she would have him killed! This man certainly could not live. Otherwise, there would not even be the slightest hope for her to marry Alex anymore.

"Look at you. You've got your hands tied up. You d*mned man. Who have you offended in South City that you've actually been taken to Kidon City?" Lily asked in a delightful manner.

Holden's expression suddenly became gloomy. "Get lost!"

Lily said, "Hmph! You're already on the brink of dying, and yet, you can still be so arrogant! Such a man like you truly is very interesting! If I was still travelling abroad, I would certainly be interested in you!

However, now, since you've been sent here to the Poole's in Kidon City being all tied up, you must die!"

Holden said, "I know I must die. Do I still need you to tell me that?"

need you to tell me that?"

Lily said, "You..."

"Get lost!"

Lily ran out angrily. She was going to borrow a gun from Axel, she wanted to personally execute this d*mned thing by shooting him!

At this moment, Axel was in the study. Sean, Rose, and himself were conversing in secret.

"Axel, we are considered to be old friends. You have to do me a favor. The reason why I came to Kidon City from South City and also the reason why I came to you was to avoid Sebastian's eyes. After this matter is done, I will give you a hundred million dollars!"

Axel said, "You...the entire Ford Group had already been in Sebastian's control, so how could you still have money?"

At this moment, Rose smiled. "Axel, you've underestimated the two of us. Although we don't have much cash on hand, the properties we have all over the country would have a total of at least five hundred million. Not only in real estate but also gold and silver jewelry. Also, we've also saved and silver jewelry. Also, we've also saved up a portion of gold bars over at your brother's. We originally planned to use that as our funeral service, but we can give half of them to you now. Those are genuine treasures."

Axel's eyes were radiating with greed. A hundred million dollars. How many people in the entire country could take a hundred million dollars just to get him to help them? Other than the Ford family, there truly was no other anymore. However, Axel still had to play pretend.

"Sean, with our relationship between the Ford family and the Poole family, how could I..."

"I know that you've suffered quite a loss because of my son. You got all those advanced weapons onto Star Island, but in the end, it was all taken by my son, Sebastian. Therefore, Axel, this...is also considered my apology to you. You don't have to be polite with me. If you continue on like this, then I'll take it as you're not willing to do me this favor. I have travelled so far overnight from South City, and this matter must be handled quickly. Otherwise, the consequences would be beyond our imagination once Sebastian gets here."

imagination once Sebastian gets here."

Axel immediately nodded. "Okay. Seeing that you've taken so much trouble, I must help you out. However, you know that I have recently taken a hit from Sebastian, so my resources were reduced. Right now, no matter what I do, I need to make arrangements."

Sean was a sensible person, so he immediately said, "I've brought one hundred million dollars here."

"Great! It's a deal!" Axel said in a straightforward manner.

Just as he said that, there was a knock on the door. Axel happened to be walking out as well, so he opened the door and saw Lily. "Lily, what can I help you with?"

Lily then said, "Let me have a gun. I want to personally put a pullet through that criminal! He had offended me with his words!"

Axel was puzzled. "That criminal?"

"That man in black who smelled of alcohol and had his hands tied up! I'm going to blow his head off right now..."

"How dare you!" Rose interjected Lily mid-sentence.

Axel was puzzled. "That criminal?"

"That man in black who smelled of alcohol and had his hands tied up! I'm going to blow his head off right now..."

"How dare you!" Rose interjected Lily mid-sentence.

Rose then raised her hand and slapped Lily across her face. "If you dare to lay your hand on my son, I will skin you alive!"

Chapter 1432

Lily covered her face. "You...what did you say?"

"That's my son!" Rose looked at this woman before her eyes with a cold and stern gaze. Rose did not know this woman who had a ferocious and seductive look. On the other hand, Holden has just gotten here and his hands were tied, so how could he have offended this woman? To the extent that she actually wanted to blow up Holden's brains?

Lily said, "You...you...who are you?"

Rose said, "Get lost!"

Lily was speechless, she felt so wronged that she was almost going to cry! She was usually the person scolding others and throwing people out. Recently, since she had returned, she truly had been extremely unlucky! She had been dumped by her boyfriend once she came back! Not long after she came back, she had been taken advantage of by a rude man at the bar and she had even been beaten up by that man. Now, she was slapped by this old lady.

Why was she so unlucky? Just as she was about to explode, Axel called out behind her. "Lily, don't be reckless!"

her, "Lily, don't be reckless!"

"Mr Axel!" Lily whined like a spoiled child.

"Do you know who this person is in front of you?" asked Axel.

Lily did not answer. Axel said, "They are from South City. They are Sebastian's parents!"

Lily was dumbfounded. She previously did not know Sebastian. However, after she had been back for more than a month, she had a thorough understanding of him. Even the powerful Axel of Kidon City had been defeated by Sebastian.

Not only that, but with just a little effort, Sebastian had even taken a portion of Axel's good weapons for his own. Not to mention that Sebastian also almost had Axel's second daughter, Emma, killed, and Axel did not even dare to make a sound.

Therefore, Lily knew that Axel was afraid of Sebastian. At the very least, he did not dare to go head-to-head with Sebastian. Hence, it was only natural that Sebastian's parents would be well-respected here at Axel's.

Lily, on the other hand, was just boarding here, so she must obey Axel. Besides, if she wanted to get back together with Alex, she wanted to get back together with Alex, she needed a great deal of support from the Poole family. Perhaps even Sebastian's parents would support her.

Thinking of that, Lily immediately said obediently, "I'm-I'm sorry, Mr and Mrs Ford. I didn't know that the person in there was your son. I...his words were slightly extreme just now, so I got a little angry. However, never mind, I think he...must have just had a little too much to drink?"

Rose did not even look at Lily and she just went straight inside. Inside the room, Holden had already been sitting on the couch in a leisurely manner. However, his hands were still tied behind him, so it was very inconvenient.

Seeing Rose coming in, Holden sneered. "Old hag, you'd better kill me. If you don't kill me, I will kill you!"

Rose was not angered. "You're only in your thirties, why do you want to die? Isn't it good to be alive?"

Holden said, "Hah! Old woman! Don't tell me that from today onwards, you're going to treat me like your own son, and then you'll provide me with living necessities and let me live freely as I pleased?"

me live freely as I pleased?"

Rose shook her head. "Holden, you're not that kind of person."

Holden was speechless. He looked inconceivably at Rose. This old d*mned hag had been beaten up several times by him. There was once, which was the most severe time, he even pulled out quite a bit of the old lady's black hair.

However, the old lady unexpectedly did not hold a grudge against him. In fact, she was being friendly with him.

"Old d*mned thing! I am completely in your hands now. You can end my life however you wish! I will not even have any comments. If you want to do it, then do it quickly! You old d*mned thing!" Holden cursed impatiently.

At this moment, Sean, who had just come through the door, spoke, "Holden! Calm down!"

Chapter 1433

Sean raised his hand and touched Holden's cheeks that had greenish black stubbles. "It s...my fault."

Holden said, "What...what did you say?"

Sean repeated seriously. "I said, you are my son. I already know that you are my son!"

Holden raised his leg and kicked him. "Get lost!"

Sean winced. "My son, you can't be so emotional and act on your impulse. I am your father. I will not harm you..."

"Sean Ford! You will not harm me? I didn't even have the right to be born! My mother had to secretly give birth to me on Star Island and give me away to the Payne family! Now, more than thirty years had passed, she had already passed away, and yet, I didn't even know she was my mother, let alone that I have a father who is one of the richest men in South City. Now, you're telling me that you will not harm me? Old geezer! If you hadn't taken advantage of me being drunk at her grave and had me tied up, do you think you can still be alive now? I would've killed you at her grave!" Holden yelled.

Sean still did not get angry. "If killing me could make you feel a little better, then I will let you kill me."

Holden was speechless. He was unexpectedly speechless.

Sean continued. "However, you are just in your thirties now. You're not married and haven't had children yet. There's still a long way to go in your future, so I want to make it up to you."

Holden could not help but to take another look at Sean.

Sean nodded. "What I said is true. I want to make it up to you."

Holden's tone became a little softer. "You've captured me at her grave, so you must have been there, right?"

Sean nodded. "I've been there."

"Have you knelt and apologized to her?" asked Holden.

Sean was speechless.

"Did you do it?" questioned Holden angrily.

"I...I did," said Sean.

"You've admitted it. You are my biological father?" Holden asked again.

father?" Holden asked again.

Sean nodded. "I am your biological father."

"Very good! Right now! Divorce Rose Quinton immediately! After that, beat Rose to death, and then marry her!"

The 'her' that Holden mentioned since the beginning had always been Grace Summer. He could not address her as 'mom'. Also, he resented Grace in his heart. However, no matter how much he resented Grace, he could not help but defend Grace with all his might in front of Sean. He would stand with Grace. He just felt discontented! He had not even met her once, and yet, she had already passed away. Holden became angry the moment he thought of that. He just wanted to trample over the world and flatten it!

However, he also felt that Sean was right. He was only in his thirties. He had not been married or had children yet. He had not even enjoyed the beauty of life yet. If he were to be hacked to death now, he would really be a little discontented. Since he was discontented, he just unreasonably ordered Sean and asked him to marry 'her'.

Sean smiled miserably. This youngest son of his, who was in front of him, had more of a dismal expression in his eyes. Dismal, a dismal expression in his eyes. Dismal, eccentric, vicious, and a little childish willfulness and unreasonable.

Sean had mixed feelings. "Your mother... had long been laid to rest seven years ago. How do you want me to...marry her?"

Holden was speechless.

"It's all my fault. As long as you leave here safely, whether you want to beat me up or scold me, I will let you do as you please, alright? I just want you to be able to leave this country safely. Your stepmother and I had already prepared all the assets for you to go abroad."

Holden was very confused. "Why can't I stay here?"

Sean sighed. "Because your elder twin brother, Sebastian, is vicious by nature. You will only die if you stay here."

Holden was speechless.

Chapter 1434

Although Holden resented Sean and Rose, he knew that Sean was right. He had already experienced how vicious and mighty his elder twin brother was when Holden was on Star Island. Star Island was not huge or developed, and Harry's defense measures were not very good. However, Holden did a very good job.

Even so, Holden was not able to defend Sebastian from conquering the city. It only took three days for Sebastian to take over the entire Star Island. After that, Holden found out that the reason that Sebastian only used three days to conquer the island was because he was waiting. He had been waiting for a few local people in power on Star Island to report the real estate and financial situation of the island to him.

The main thing was the liquidation of the batch of weapons Axel had financed. The weapons were originally financed by Axel for the island, but the entirety of the weapons was taken by Sebastian without much effort. Sebastian had taken off a portion of the weapons for his own use. As for the rest, Sebastian had made as much as one billion dollars of profit out of them. Within a short trip to Star Island that lasted Within a short trip to Star Island that lasted only one week, not only did Sebastian make a huge profit, but he also conquered Star Island and made Holden homeless. That was Sebastian Ford.

Holden had long heard and witnessed how great Sebastian was with schemes. Also, Holden even knew Sebastian was merciless and extremely vicious to his elder brothers. Therefore, Holden knew Sean was speaking the truth at this moment.

Holden could not help but ask Sean. "My brother...those that were older than him were..."

"Those that were older than Sebastian were also your brothers! They were my biological sons!" Rose spoke again.

Holden looked at Rose with an expression full of hostility.

Rose was not bothered. She just continued, "My biological sons are all dead because of Sebastian! Now, the entire Ford Group is under Sebastian's control. Even your father has no right to participate in the company's strategies, let alone you!"

Rose was very clear with her words, but Holden sneered. "I don't care for that at all!"

Holden sneered. "I don't care for that at all!"

"You don't care for that. The two of you are truly twins. The viciousness and stubbornness in your bones are the same, but I'll still say the same thing."

Holden looked at Rose with annoyance. "What?"

"You're only in your thirties. You have to stay alive. You still have a bright future ahead of you. You still have to get married and have kids. Your father had already lost your three elder brothers. He doesn't wish to see you and your elder twin brother go against each other," said Rose calmly.

Holden sneered again. "You? This kind?"

Rose said, "I'm already old..."

"Bullsh*t!" Holden immediately interjected Rose's words.

Rose said, "You..."

Holden rolled his eyes condescendingly. "Old hag! I am well aware of those cruel things you've done to my biological mother back then! Therefore, you should blame yourself for being cruel first before you blame my brother for being vicious! I am not your biological child, but I am the son of your love rival! Not only that, my brother

Rose said, "You..."

Holden rolled his eyes condescendingly. "Old hag! I am well aware of those cruel things you've done to my biological mother back then! Therefore, you should blame yourself for being cruel first before you blame my brother for being vicious! I am not your biological child, but I am the son of your love rival! Not only that, my brother had also killed those sons of yours, and you're telling me you will treat me like your own son now? Do you think you're lying to a three-year-old child?"

Hearing Holden scold herself like this, Rose did not refute at all, but she cried instead. Her tone became incomparably clear. "Holden, you're not me, so how would you know my pain and difficulties? I was only in my thirties back then, not yet forty."

Chapter 1435

"I was so young and ambitious back then. Our Ford Group has been around in the South City for more than a hundred years, but unfortunately, the group encountered an unprecedented crisis in those few years back then. That caused the group to collapse gradually. I could only weather the storm with your father. When we had our back up against the wall, I chose to let your father seduce your mother. That was for the purpose of establishing a steady position on Star Island. From the standpoint of the Ford Group, what's ruining a person if the whole company could be revived? That would still be better than ruining the lives of more than ten thousand employees of the company, and causing them to be jobless, homeless and destitute, right?"

Holden was speechless.

"To your mother, I was vicious and absolutely inhumane, but to the Ford Group? Your father and I had brought the Ford Group out of the crisis! I was vicious to your mother, but from another perspective, I deserved all the credit for everything relating to the Ford Group. I am partly the reason the Ford Group is as well-doing as it is today. However, my sons are all dead is today. However, my sons are all dead because of Sebastian. I, on the other hand, could never return to my thirties anymore. I am already in my seventies. I can no longer fight anymore, and my sons have passed away one after another. I am now a lonely old woman, so I only have two options. One option is to live out my life with your father, and the other option is to get you on your back on your feet. After that, let you start a family and let your father and I have a person to depend on. This is because your brother clearly doesn't want us."

Holden suddenly laughed hysterically. "You pushed my mother, brother, and I to such ends, so of course it's impossible for him to want you! It was all because of Sean that Sebastian didn't end your life! Old witch! If he doesn't want you, do you think I will want you?"

Rose was not angered. She only said, "Holden, I still have something else to say. You're only in your thirties, and you have such a bright future. Just like you said, you're already tied and captured here by us now. You're dead no matter what, so why don't you take a bet? Bet that your father and I can let you make a comeback?"

Holden was silent for a long while. Then, he said in a calm tone, "Untie me!"

Rose said, "Okay, alright, my son."

She personally untied Holden. When she looked at Holden again, there was actually more affection in Rose's gaze. "Holden, it doesn't matter if you acknowledge me as your mother or not, but your father and I are dependent on you from now on. Just go abroad today. After you've gone abroad, you will receive an endless amount of fundings."

Holden ignored Rose but he did not hit Rose again after he had regained his freedom. He just looked at Axel, who had been standing at the door. "Mr Poole, thank you."

"Young Lord Holden! Hope you've been well. We're old acquaintances. Don't worry. Since your father and your stepmother have come to me, then I will definitely send you off abroad," said Axel.

Upon saying that, he said again, "I hope that we can help each other out in the future just like what you did back on Star Island. I sincerely hope to be friends with you."

Holden did not reply. At this moment, Lily rushed in from outside. "Young Lord

Holden, it turned out you were the young

Upon saying that, he said again, "I hope that we can help each other out in the future just like what you did back on Star Island. I sincerely hope to be friends with you."

Holden did not reply. At this moment, Lily rushed in from outside. "Young Lord Holden, it turned out you were the young lord from Star Island? No, you're actually Mr Ford...Mr Ford's fifth son? It's my pleasure to know you."

Just as she was saying that, Lily then stretched her hand out and said very proactively, "Let's get to know each other all over again. I am Lily from the Parker family of Kidon City. It's great to meet you..."

"Scram! You dirty sl*t!" Holden then lifted his foot and kicked Lily. She was then thrown out of the door.