

Chapter 1551

There were no tears left to be squeezed out of Jane's eyes anymore. Her eyes would hurt if she were to cry any longer.

'Jane, why are you still feeling this upset? Was it because of the child?'

She already no longer wanted to keep the child in her belly. In the past three days, she had bounced and punched her own belly to get rid of the child. However, it seemed like the child had a very vigorous vitality. No matter how much she suffered, the child was still there. Also, she could feel the little baby's thumping heartbeat in her belly. Why must the heavens play tricks on her like that? She had once wanted a child very much, but she was not able to keep any of them. However, at that moment, she no longer wanted the child anymore, but that child was growing very peacefully in her belly instead. She laughed suddenly. Perhaps this was what the heavens had planned for her. It was God's will that she deserved to be tortured alive with a deserved to be tortured alive with a pregnant belly. However, nothing mattered anymore. As long as her mother-in-law could still be alive, then she would just let others torture her as they pleased.

Jane followed Cindy out of the car in a daze. She then walked into the mansion in a daze as well while being led by Cindy. The lights inside the mansion were bright. Before they entered the mansion, they could hear the laughter of a bevy of beauties, and an aged voice was mixed among them. Upon entering, they saw that it was indeed incredibly lively there. In the large living room, an elderly man as fat as a pig with a belly so big as if he was nine months pregnant was sitting in the middle of the couch. The elderly man's chubby cheeks were squeezed into a smile, and he was surrounded by five women. He looked here and there, and then he immediately smiled and said nicely to the beautiful women, "My prey is here."

All of the five women then looked towards the door with excitement. These towards the door with excitement. These few women had usually been doted on by the old man as if they were princesses. They had always heard that the old man liked to abuse pregnant women, but they had never seen it in the past three years. They did not dare to get pregnant at all because they were afraid that they would be abused to death by the old d*mned thing if they did.

Curiosity, as well as women's jealousy, made them eager to see how unlucky the pregnant woman who had just arrived was. It was not their own doomed encounter anyway, so no onlookers would ever dislike the drama for being too juicy.

All five of the women were incredibly excited. When they saw the pregnant lady with a pale face and dazed expression, all five women had condescending gazes. The few women, who were as beautiful as flowers, felt that the slightly bulging belly in particular that was under Jane's dirty clothes was unbearably ugly.

One of the women kicked Jane and asked with a side-long glance, "I heard that you used to be a human bed warmer for Kido used to be a human bed warmer for Kidon City's Master Poole?"

Another woman immediately scolded sharply. "Ha! I'm guessing she was not even a bed warmer. How can a woman like her warm his bed? At best she was just a tool for him to vent his lust. You have never touched Master Alex's bed, haven't you?"

"Tsk tsk tsk, how can a woman such as you even want to carry Master Alex's child?"

"Ha! You were dreaming of relying on the child to raise your position on Master Alex's end, right?"

"I never expected that not only did Master Alex not give you legitimate status, but he even sent you to our Master Hall to let you have a taste of what it's called hell on earth!"

"Pfft! You deserved it!"

Although this group of women did not know Jane at all, they viewed her as the common enemy and desperately wanted to simply hack Jane to death. Who asked common enemy and desperately wanted to simply hack Jane to death. Who asked that Jane used to be the woman of Kidon City's Master Alex? 1

D*mned!

Facing the group of women who were ridiculing her, Jane turned a deaf ear towards them. She just looked at the elderly man, who was like a fat pig that was sitting on the couch.

“Come over and kneel in front of me,” the man ordered Jane.

Chapter 1552

Jane looked at that fat elderly man sluggishly. "You asked me to kneel in front of you, but can you take me to my mother-in-law?"

"What mother-in-law of yours? I just want you. Why would I want that old woman?" Huron got up and came to the front of Jane. He then kicked Jane to her knees. He then turned around and looked towards Cindy. "What's going on? Why is she asking for her mother-in-law from me as soon as she speaks?"

Cindy immediately pulled Huron to the side and explained, "This woman is determined to die, so if we don't use her mother-in-law to constrain her, she may just end her own life. If she ends her own life, then how would you get to play with her?"

Huron gave it a thought. "So, that was it. I have a lot of tricks to play, so don't let her die."

Cindy was beaming brightly. "The more

Holden knew that very well in his heart, so he would not take in such a rotten item like Cindy. Back then when Cindy came to seek refuge with Huron, he did not even let Cindy meet him. Only then did that old d*mned thing Lenny managed to take the advantage to take in Cindy. However, Huron never would have thought that Cindy was a woman who truly had some skills, she actually managed to strike up a relationship with Kidon City's Master Alex. Therefore, Huron did not dare to treat Cindy badly today because who would not want to strike up a relationship with Master Alex from Kidon City? If Huron managed to do so, then Huron's identity would no longer be the lowly local tyrant in the future anymore. ①

Cindy looked at the way Huron fawn over her, she then took it one step further. "To be honest with you, Mr Hall, I had known that this was your cup of tea for a very long time, so I exhausted all the ways to get this pregnant woman to you. This way, you get to play, and in the meantime, you also get to let Master Alex remember you."

Cindy was beaming brightly. "The more tricks, the better. Mr Hall, I can tell you that this was a matter that Kidon City's Master Alex had specially ordered me to handle. Once this was done well, never mind me, but even you will get many benefits out of it. You think you can lord over this territory in White Ocean City, but could you fight with Kidon City's Master Alex?"

Although Huron was an almost 70 years old elderly man, he was not confused. He immediately shook his head. "Of course, I would be no match for him. Every time Master Alex came to the borders here, local tyrants like us had to stay hidden and hibernate. Who would be so free and bold to offend Master Alex!"

"Therefore, this is your good chance to perform." Cindy changed to another topic abruptly. "However, no matter how you torture this woman, and no matter how many tricks you have, you can never let her die. Master Alex wants her alive and not dead. Do you understand?" 1

Huron grinned. "Although I'm already

Huron grinned. "Although I'm already old, I am also a man. I obviously understand Master Alex's intentions. To think of that woman of mine back then, I also want her alive and not dead! Don't worry. I know what to do."

"That's good." Cindy looked delighted.

Usually, Huron would not even take an extra look at Cindy because in Huron's eyes, Cindy's level was not enough. The few beauties by Huron's side at that moment had all just turned twenty, and they were all delicate young models in White Ocean City. Although they were not as popular as Cindy back then when she was a celebrity, they were younger than Cindy.

Although such a woman like Cindy had once been in Kidon City's entertainment, was she also not a character who was out of fashion? Since she was out of fashion and had been banned by someone, that could only mean that she had been mixing with people who were not easy to mess with.

Holden knew that very well in his heart, s

remember you.”

“Yes, yes, yes, Miss Miller. You’re right,” said Huron in a flattering manner.

Cindy suddenly changed the topic. “However, I have also offended that d*mned old man of mine!”

Huron said, “This...”

“However, it was not because of you! You also know that I am an ambitious person who doesn’t belong here. I am only temporarily here after being forced to come to his miserable land. Therefore, I had never planned on being with Lenny forever. Since I have a chance now, I’m going to return to Kidon City soon. In the future, I will be someone rich in resources in both Kidon City and South City.

“I am still someone by Master Alex’s side who is highly sought-after. Therefore, Mr Hall, before Master Alex arrives in White Ocean City, can you take me in? Otherwise, I would be stabbed to death by that old d*mned thing Lenny as soon as I leave this place.”

Chapter 1553

Huron immediately patted his chest and said, "Leave that to me!"

After saying that, he then shouted at the top of his lungs. "Uno, Dos, Tres, Cuatro, and Cinco! All five of you come here!"

The five women who were surrounding Huron just now immediately came to the front of him. One of the girls in her twenties asked, "What's the matter, Huron?"

"This is your senior! Miss Miller had a few roles in TV and film back then. Treat her well," Huron ordered.

One of the beautiful girls called out with a grin, "Miss Miller, come with us."

Cindy then followed the five beautiful women and went upstairs. Huron's mansion has a total of three floors. The first floor was for the maids. The second floor was for himself. His five beautiful young models were all staying in the eight rooms on the third floor. After the beautiful women took Cindy to the third floor and arranged a room for her, they floor and arranged a room for her, they then started to question Cindy thoroughly.

“Miss Miller, I heard that you have quite a close relationship with Kidon City’s Master Alex, is that right?”

“Miss Miller, have you met Master Alex?”

“Nonsense! Miss Miller used to be in the entertainment industry in Kidon City. Of course, she knows Master Alex.”

“Miss Miller, I heard that Master Alex is only thirty-four years old this year, and he is tall and handsome. He is almost one hundred and ninety centimeters tall. I had long heard that Master Alex and Master Sebastian in South City, one in the north and one in the south, are both extremely handsome men. Also, they were both rich and powerful men.”

“Cuatro, look at you, you’re just like someone with emophilia. Be careful not to let the old man hear you! He’ll end your life!”

“Haha, if it was in the past, the man may hear it, but he won’t today. I’m guessing hear it, but he won't today. I'm guessing that the old man is now torturing the pregnant lady on the second floor, right? Haha..."

"Miss Miller, can you tell me the story of you and Master Alex?"

Cindy knew, which one of them did not wish to meet Alex once? Which of them was not daydreaming of having him take a fancy to them, and then pick them to be his lover? Cindy sneered. 'You wish!'

However, Cindy did not express it on her face. She only looked askance at these young models as if she was their big sister. "If he comes quick enough, you may meet Master Alex tomorrow. Won't you know about it after meeting him?"

"Really?"

"Gosh!"

"I have to take a beauty sleep tonight."

"Miss Miller, I will be your follower..."

The few young models then surrounded Cindy and massaged her shoulder and legs for her. That night, although Cindy Cindy and massaged her shoulder and legs for her. That night, although Cindy and her old man had a conflict that ended with Cindy being homeless, she was not nervous at all. Instead, she had a very comfortable night with five young models serving her by her side.

In comparison to Cindy, Jane had a rough time. She was taken to the second floor by Huron. Her clothes were filthy and her hair was in a mess. She looked at Huron in a daze. "What do you want to do to me?"

Huron smiled in an eerily cold manner. "What do you think?"

His phone suddenly rang and he immediately answered it. "Who is it? How dare you interrupt my fun time?"

Chapter 1554

Lenny's furious roar could be heard on the other end of the line. "Huron Hall! You d*mned thing! I'll leave Cindy at your place. If you have your way with her tonight, I will not hold you responsible! Return that little pregnant woman to me!"

Huron was speechless. Huron had gotten used to lord over the territory of White Ocean City. That d*mned Lenny had never dared to even breathe too loudly in front of him. What was going on that day? For the sake of a pregnant woman, Lenny actually dared to bluster at him.

"Lenny Powell! Have you taken the wrong medicine?" Huron scolded patiently.

It was mainly because Huron was happy that day. He had been lacking this type of item for three years. He had just gotten the item, so it was only natural for him to be so happy that he almost rubbed his hands together. However, he had never expected that Lenny had an unyielding tone on the other end of the line. "Huron, I am an old d*mned thing, and so are

I am an old d*mned thing, and so are you! We are already so old! Do you really think I'm afraid of you? I just didn't want to fight with you anymore! It has been so many years. We have done our fair share of evil things. We have spent almost half of the money we've traded with our lives on women, but what have we gotten out of it?"

Huron was speechless. He never would have expected that Lenny would be like a changed man at that moment. Not only was Lenny not afraid of Huron, but he even started to talk some sense into him.

Seeing that Huron did not answer, Lenny continued. "We don't even have a woman who is with us wholeheartedly! Take my b*tch, Cindy, for example! When she was reduced to coming here from Kidon City, she was so despondent that she did not even have a hundred dollars on her. Even you were not willing to take her in. I was the one who took her in, but what happened in the end? Has she ever been true to me? No, she hasn't!"

After letting out a sigh, Lenny said, "

However, that little pregnant woman is After letting out a sigh, Lenny said, "However, that little pregnant woman is not the same."

Lenny was overwhelmed with emotions once the little pregnant woman was mentioned.

She had been locked up by Cindy in the mansion for three days and three nights. Lenny had already found out about it on the first night, and he had also gone to visit her. Every single time he saw the little pregnant woman, she would be in a daze as if she was a psycho, and she would not stop asking, "Where is my mother?"

At that time, Lenny thought that person she was referring to was her biological mother. Later on, only did he find out that that was not it. The person the little pregnant woman was referring to was her fiancé's mother. Also, her fiancé had already passed away. She loved her fiancé. Therefore, even if he had already passed away, she would still treat the life of her fiancé's mother as something that was more important than her own life.

was more important than her own life.

Lenny has done countless bad things in his life, and he has plenty of women. There were as many as nine of them under his nose. That was truly the behavior of the typical rich man.

However, Lenny was moved by the little pregnant woman. He then took a closer look at her temperament. Although she was poorly dressed and her hair was in a mess, her little face was hauntingly beautiful and adorable. When such a delicate and helpless woman saw her savior, she did not think of kneeling and asking for herself to be saved first. All of her attention was focused on her fiancé's mother instead. She did not care for her life at all.

Although such a woman was despondent, she had conquered the heart of Lenny who was in his sixties. He had earned quite a lot of money in this life. He had at least several million dollars. However, all the women he had met had been wagging their tails and begging for pity like b*tches in front of him. They begged him for living necessities, but they had never their tails and begging for pity like b*tches in front of him. They begged him for living necessities, but they had never been true to him.

This was his first time seeing such a woman who did not fear death and was not tempted by money and rewards.

He had thought about it, as long as the little pregnant woman was willing to be with him, he would give her a proper status, and will help raise her child! He would give her a few million dollars worth of property, which was enough to spend over several lifetimes!

However, before he could start this plan, it was already ruined by that d*mned woman named Cindy Miller.

Chapter 1555

Was Lenny afraid of Huron? He was already an old man who had one foot in the grave, so who was he afraid of? He only wanted to find a woman who will be affectionate and loyal to him in this lifetime. Was that not allowed?

“Huron, in terms of power, I can't compare to you. However, we are both already so old! Now, newer generations are overthrowing the older ones. How long can we still live? As long as you let me have the little pregnant woman, I will give all of my territories to you. I just want to bring her and live a secluded life in the fields. How about that?” Lenny was considered to be discussing with Huron nicely.

However, Huron only sneered. “Powell! This matter is not as simple as you think! It's best if you don't intercept! Otherwise, you would die a terrible death!”

Lenny instantly became furious. “Hall! Do you think I'm afraid of you? If you're going to be serious about it, then I will fight you to the end!”

fight you to the end!”

“Hmph!” Huron only uttered a sound in reply to Lenny. He knew Lenny was not afraid of him. After they are both old already and they only have their lives left, so who would be afraid? However, if Lenny caused trouble this time, then it truly would not end well anymore!

Huron was waiting for Lenny to kick up a storm. It would be best if Lenny could create a great commotion in White Ocean City. Then, when Master Alex arrived, he could directly take care of Lenny, and that would even save Huron from putting in even the slightest efforts. 1

After Huron hung up the call, he just stared at Jane. Sarcastically, he said to Jane, “Never would I have expected that a pregnant woman like you would actually still have such a great charm. Even that old d*mned thing, Lenny, has been subdued by you?”

Jane’s expression was still dazed. “Where is my mother-in-law? Let me see if she has been sleeping and if she has eaten. I want to have a video chat with her. If she i want to have a video chat with her. If she is still alive, then you can make me do anything! Don't ever hurt her. I'll cooperate with anything."

"I just won't let you see her!" Huron raised his legs to kick Jane's belly.

However, just as he was about to touch Jane's belly, he suddenly stopped. He was afraid that he would kick this delicate and weak woman to death, then it would be difficult to explain to Master Alex when the time came. He then immediately withdrew his leg. "I can let you have a look at her and have a word with her."

After saying that, he turned on the video chat and directly contacted the person who was watching the old woman. The old woman was indeed staying at quite a nice place.

Jane's tears started to stream down her cheeks as soon as she took a look. "Mrs... Mrs Hill."

The old woman immediately cried out. "Jane, don't care about me, my child. I'm already more than seventy years old. Live your life well, and go collect Noah's body.

your life well, and go collect Noah's body. Don't be bothered with me anymore!"

"Mrs Hill, are you still willing to stay alive? If you're willing to stay alive, then I'll stay alive. If you're not willing anymore, then let's die together, alright?" Jane sobbed.

She was originally already all cried out, and she felt that her tears had run dry. However, at that moment when she saw her mother-in-law, her tears broke out like a broken dam.

"I'll stay alive. I'll certainly stay alive." On the other end, the old woman immediately wiped her cloudy tears. Just when she was about to say something else, the video chat had ended.

"Mrs Hill!" Jane shouted at the top of her lungs. She truly was exhausted. She really wanted to die together with her mother. However, the old woman was not willing to die, so Jane had to think of ways to protect her.

Jane raised her tearful eyes and looked at the elderly man in front of her who was a

Jane raised her tearful eyes and looked at the elderly man in front of her who was as fat as a pig, and then she said calmly, "Just say it. Whatever that you asked me to do, I will just obey. I only have one requirement. I want to talk to my mother-in-law once a day."

"Very good!" The elderly man then immediately lifted his fat hand and grabbed Jane's chin.

Right at that moment, his phone rang again. He answered the call immediately without even looking at the number first, and then he immediately roared, "Lenny Powell, you old d*mned thing! I..."

"Is this Huron Hall? I am Alex Poole," said Alex in a cold tone on the other end of the line.
