

Chapter 1835

Aino bawled her eyes out so hysterically. "Get lost..."

Sean was speechless. Right at that moment, two more people came through the door. One of them was Marcus. When Marcus heard Aino's screams, he immediately ran in with big strides and saw Aino crying hysterically. He then hugged Aino and called out heartbreakingly. "Aino, Aino."

There was another person behind him. It was Old Master Shaw, who was trembling and could not even walk steadily. Old Master Shaw, who had not appeared for a very long time, seemed much older than a year ago. Within that year, his health seemed much better than a year ago. Within that year, his health had not been very good. His relationship with Gloria had eased up a little bit. However, it was just that Gloria would not drive him out anymore. Gloria was still unwilling to address Old Master Shaw as her father. ●

Seeing Old Master Shaw entering, Gloria asked indifferently, "Why are you here?"

Old Master Shaw looked at Aino heartbreakingly. "I...I just wanted to see Aino. The child... the child is too pitiful."

Aino shouted sharply. "Get lost! All of you are bad guys! You are damned old men! How come you're still alive?"

Old Master Shaw was speechless.

Old Master Shaw was speechless.

“You bullied my mom! All of you bullied my mom! What exactly has my mother done for all of you to bully her like that?” Aino seemed like she had gone crazy. She scolded Old Master Shaw and she also scolded Sean.

She was just a six-year-old child. How could she have the mental capacity to accept things as well as an adult? The way Aino behaved made Gloria utterly heartbroken when she saw her. She hugged the child in her arms. “Don’t cry, baby, don’t cry. I am here.”

At that moment, Ruth and Yvonne also rushed in. Both the girls put Aino and her grandmother in between them at Yvonne also stepped in. Both the girls put Aino and her grandmother in between them at the same time to protect them. Only then did Aino burst out crying, "Aunt Yvonne, Aunt Ruth ..."

Ruth put her hands on her waist. "Let's not cry anymore, Aino. Don't cry. If anybody dare to bully Aino again in the future, I will fight that person to death! If any slight mishap were to happen to Aino in the future, I will not spare all of you! I am a shrew! I have no money and no power, so who the f*ck would I be afraid of?"

What Ruth said made Sean feel very ashamed. Old Master Shaw felt very ashamed.

At that moment, Marcus turned t

At that moment, Marcus turned to Old Master Shaw. "Grandpa, I told you...to not come first, but you insisted on coming. Look at Aino. Such a young child has been provoked so badly. What should we do now?"

Old Master Shaw then explained with much grievance. "I...I was just worried about the child, and your aunt, as well as Sabrina. I'm worried about them..."

"Grandpa, listen to me. If you put yourself in Aino's shoes and think like her, then you should go back first. I'll tell the driver to send you home first."

Old Master Shaw nodded despondently. At that moment, Marcus also consoled and persuaded Sean. "Mister Ford

Old Master Shaw nodded despondently. At that moment, Marcus also consoled and persuaded Sean. "Mister Ford, you..."

After a pause, he said, "Mister Ford, I don't mean to criticize you. I'm afraid you are the only grandpa in this world who could be cruel enough to lie to your own granddaughter. Do you know what you're cheating your own granddaughter of? You're cheating the trust she had in you and also her affection for you. Perhaps you may lose your granddaughter for the rest of your life."

Seen was covered in tears. "Marcus, I know I'm wrong."

provoked again,” said Marcus.

“I...”

Sebastian, who had been trying to calm down, shouted angrily
again. “Get lost immediately!”

Sean then turned around and dragged his feet as he went out.
Right at that moment, his phone rang. He took up his phone and answered. “Hello?” Immediately after that, Sean’s voice changed.
“What? He’s...dead?”
