

that sounded just like a ghost came from behind Jane.

Jane did not look back. She just sneered and said, "Lily Parker, you've finally come. I have been waiting for you!"

Chapter 1860

Lily was so shocked that she was stunned. This woman seemed to have known beforehand that she was coming. However, Lily also was not someone who was easy to mess with. She was also a woman who had weathered the storm and been with many men. At that point, who was she afraid of?

Lily calmed herself down and sneered. "

Jane Sheen! I've not seen you for half a year, and you've become stronger now. You are even able to predict that I'm coming to you? But, even if you can predict that I'm coming to you, what can you do to me? You don't have friends. Only those few friends of Sabrina's were nice to you. However, Sabrina is unable to defend herself now. If I didn't guess it wrongly, those two best friends of Sabrina's have to follow their fiancés to pay their respects to Old Master Ford today, right? Jane, tell me, who else in this place can help you now? You almost died a week ago from losing too much blood. You can't even support yourself to stand for five minutes straight now! Don't tell me you're able to fight me now," said Lily with immense confidence.

Lily knew Jane too well. She knew Jane was just a person who had some good looks but was very cowardly. Lily had always thought that she knew Jane more than Jane knew herself. To put it bluntly, i f Jane did not have Sabrina's support, then she would just be a useless person. A trash!

"Then, what are you doing here?" Jane regained her senses and looked at Lily calmly. Only then did Lily truly see the way Jane looked. Her face was pale. There was almost no sign of blood on her face. She was also breathless when she spoke. Ha! In that case, it would be much easier for Lily.

"I am here...to snatch your child away," said Lily.

In fact, Lily was not really there to snatch the child away that day. That was because they were in the hospital. Even if Jane had no one by her side to help her, it also would not be possible for Lily to snatch the child away. Besides, in any case, even if Lily managed to snatch the child away, Alex also would not spare her. Therefore, she was not there to snatch the child away that day. However, Lily wanted to instill such fear in Jane. In the future, she would seek more opportunities to instill fear in Jane. Jane was timid, did not have her own opinion, and was a woman who would still return to obediently give birth to Alex's child after being abused by him. Lily has a hundred ways to toy such a woman like Jane to death. In Lily's eyes, Jane was not even an enemy at all to her! Jane was too weak! Such a woman was only worthy to be a bed warmer to Alex. Jane was just lucky to give birth to Alex's child, but she was not worthy to be a mother!

"You want to snatch my child away?"

Jane's lips instantly became even paler. There was no longer calmness in her eyes, they were replaced with fear instead. Immense fear. Jane's hands involuntarily grabbed the corner of the hospital sheets tightly.

Ha! Lily indeed did not make any wrong guesses about this woman! Jane truly could not pretend any longer.

"That's right!" Lily continued to put pressure on Jane. "I am here to snatch away your child. Jane, I have to admit that you have served my fiancé, Alex, very well. You have made him feel loved.

However, that was only because you were pregnant with his child. That's all! If I were to prove to Alex that I can take good care of his child, then, Jane, you would only be a mere tool for reproduction! Do you understand, woman? You! You're just a tool for reproduction!"

After being forced into a corner by Lily, Jane became more and more terrified. She hung her head. "Don't come over, don't come over! My...my husband is coming soon. My husband...hates you very much! Once he sees you, he certainly will beat you to death!"
