However, the more nervous Jane felt, the braver and more ruthless she became! She had to teach that woman a lesson that day. Even if she did not have that toy scissors

Therefore, after she considered the pros and the cons, the only thing she could do was scare Lily away first.

At first, when Lily had just entered the door, Jane had used that kind of calm, cold, and stern tone to speak to her for the purpose of scaring Lily away. However, that woman, Lily, was truly too cunning. She would not be frightened by Jane at all because she was a woman who would not of them during that period was to take care of Jane, as well as Zayn's wife, Hana, who was just nearby. It so happened that they had just gone out to help Hana buy some things, and they also wanted to buy some diapers and so on for Jane's child.

It was fortunate that they had not gone far. They were just at the store near the hospital that sold maternity essentials and infant supplies. Just as that looked very real, Jane also had thought everything through. She must wait until Lily came right in front of her, then she would catch her off guard and grab her hair. After that, Jane would bite Lily on her neck. She had already made up her mind. However, the process that came after was quite smooth. Jane succeeded in using a pair of toy scissors to scare the crap out of Lily.

However, Lily was a sly old fox. She was too cunning. After she frantically ran out of the ward, she felt that something was off. How could there be a pair of shiny scissors in the ward, let alone that that was a maternity ward? Also, that pair of scissors was so shiny that it seemed a little fake. Could it be that that was fake scissors?

Once Lily thought of that, she saw a five-year-old little girl walking out of the ward opposite Jane's.

The little girl was holding a shiny sword in her hand. "Haha, I'm going to go find the boy next door to play. My sword must be longer than his scissors. Hmph!"

Lily understood instantly that the scissors Jane was holding in her hand was actually fake but made to look real. Jane was just giving Lily a fright!

'Damn it! That's too embarrassing! I actually was frightened out of my they were too worried about Jane's safety, both Yvonne and Ruth really came running to the ward barefooted. Ruth really had her toes pricked by thorns.

However, it was fortunate that they had arrived in time. This d*mned woman truly was a b*tch who deserved a beating! They had already beaten her up a few times, but she still did not turn over a new leaf! They had to go all out that day then!

wits by such a lowly and cowardly woman who had just given birth to a child! That won't do! I have to go back immediately to kill this woman!

It has not even been a minute since Lily stopped outside of the ward before she turned around and went in again. She looked at Jane with a ferocious gaze, but she did not realize that two women had entered the door behind her. They were Yvonne and Ruth. Because I am a true and authentic shrew! I have had a lot of experience in fights growing up! Be good and follow us! Otherwise, you're dead!" Ruth's tone was not joking at all, so Lily was truly frightened.

Yvonne and Ruth each held one of Lily's arms, and the three of them walked outside while joking like three best friends. They did not get out of the hospital, but they got to a place without any surveillance or people.

Three people. Two against one. Among Yvonne and Ruth, one of them was holding two short wooden sticks, and the other was holding two shoes.

"You...what do you want to do?" Lily was thoroughly scared out of her wits at that point. She was so scared that she suddenly wanted to urinate.

Yvonne held the shoes and said while shrugging her shoulders innocently.

was so scared that she suddenly wanted to urinate.

Yvonne held the shoes and said while shrugging her shoulders innocently.

"Lily, I think your face is too small. I'll use the sole of these shoes to make them a bit fuller. What do you say?"

"No..." Lily was so scared that she continuously retreated.
