Chapter 1838

In the end, Lily still could not help but laugh. "Sebastian, none of you had ever expected it right? I still could come back, and I came back alive."

Sebastian was speechless. This was truly unexpected for him. Lily had been hunted by Alex initially, but she escaped with the help of Sean and Rose after that. Later on, she thought that she was carrying Holden's child in her belly, and she almost died being tortured by Holden in the end. At that time, everyone had received Lily's phone call asking for help. However, everyone thought that she was certainly going to die. No one expected that she could escape from Holden's clutches, and she could still return to the country.

"How did you come back?" Sebastian asked indifferently.

"Ha!" Lily could not help but laugh out loud with smug satisfaction. However, she just let out a brief laughter, and she saw a pair of incomparably cold and stern gaze glaring at her. Those gazes were so cold as if they wanted to kill someone.

●ld as if they wanted to kill someone. Lily followed the direction of the gaze and looked over. Only then did she see that it was Aino. After not seeing Aino for a year, the little six-year-old girl had grown a lot. The six-year-old Aino had a firm, ferocious, and calm gaze. Her resemblance to Sebastian was uncanny.

“Miss Lily, I know you!” said Aino coldly.

That simple line sent a chill down Lily’s spine. “Hey...well...” Lily actually stammered a little. ①

“You’re very capable,” said Aino again.

Lily was speechless. Aino was just a six-year-old girl. How could she speak just like an adult? Lily also never expected that a six-year-old child could escape from her uncle’s clutches by herself, and was able to walk on her own to her kindergarten, then walk back home from her kindergarten after that. She overcame all the obstacles, but when she finally got home, her mother, who loved her the most, went to rescue her and fell into her Uncle Holden’s hands again. Not only that, but her mother was even abducted at sea by a group of robbers. That was truly a huge blow to a six-year-old child. It

...a huge blow to a six-year-old child. It was only natural for Aino, who had originally been bold, calm, and careful, to become even calmer and more careful.

"You could escape from my Uncle Holden's clutches. How did you manage to escape?" asked Aino.

Lily's heart sank for a moment as she was frightened by Aino's gaze and questioning. However, on second thought, how could she be frightened by a six-year-old child? She immediately said with a sharp voice, "Ha! Who am I? To think that when I was abroad back then, what have I not been through and what have I not seen? With your uncle's ability, do you think he could trap me? I only had to apply a little trickery and then it was just a piece of cake for me to escape from him! Hmph!"

No one knew about how Lily had escaped from Holden's island. Lily was the only one who knew about it. Indeed, she had lost the organ to reproduce, but that just made it convenient for her to do business with her body. At least, she did not need to worry about getting pregnant again. Since she had escaped from Holden's island, she had been with quite a number of

Since she had escaped from Holden's end, she had been with quite a number of men. From janitors to perverts, she had been through them all. The worst was when she did the deed with more than thirty people over a day and a night on the ship. In the end, she was so exhausted that she fainted. However, although she felt her whole body was breaking apart when she woke up, she truly returned to South City. As long as she could return to South City, then she could return to Kidon City from there. As long as she returned, it was only natural that she wanted to take revenge.

Lily could never bear children anymore in this life. She could no longer have her own child. Therefore, she also would not let the woman that she hated have a good end. Absolutely no way! The first person she wanted to bring down was Sebastian. At that moment, she was almost done with bringing Sabrina down. After another two more steps, even if Sabrina was still alive, it was unlikely that she could get back together with Sebastian. That was Lily's evil plan.

Chapter 1839

'Haha!' Lily was feeling very smug. She did not even conceal her smugness in front of Sebastian, so naturally, she also would not be having slightest bit of concealment in front of the little child, Aino.

However, Aino said bluntly instead, "Mm-hmm. That shows that you are a very scheming person."

"Of course!"

"Therefore, it was such an evil strategy of having my Uncle Holden abduct me first, and then trick my mom to go over after that. Was it you who came up with it?" Aino asked as she remained calm and composed.

Lily was stunned for a moment. How could this little brat be so smart? Lily got a little exasperated. "What nonsense are you talking about? I hate your Uncle Holden so much! Why would I help him come up with ideas?"

Aino sneered. She stood side by side with her father, and she was holding her father's hand. At that moment, her father father's hand. At that moment, her father did not say anything because her father and Rose were directly looking at each other. Aino knew that at her great-grandpa's funeral, only her father and herself were of one mind. Although her Uncle Poole and the others are also of one mind with her father, they could only come here to pay their respects and give their condolences. Therefore, they could not be by her father and her side at close distance. Thus, only Aino and her father could work together to deal with everyone else at this funeral. At this moment, her father was dealing with Rose. Aino, on the other hand, was left to deal with Lily. What was wrong with being six years old? This six-year-old child should not be underestimated!

"Lily Parker! If you're not in front of my grandma, then maybe I wouldn't suspect you so much! However, you're standing in front of my grandma now! That means that you have been in contact with my grandma! However, if the grudge between you and my Uncle Holden had not been resolved, how could my uncle let you get close to my grandparents?" Aino scolded fiercely. "Lily Parker! It was my uncle who made you this way! Don't you ●le who made you this way! Don't you hate him?"

Lily was speechless.

Aino continued. "On the other hand, with my Uncle Holden's temper and with the degree of hate he felt towards you, he absolutely would not be able to tolerate you! Unless, you took the initiative to apologize to him! Unless, you took the initiative to come up with evil ideas for him!"

Lily was speechless. She became more and more afraid of this six-year-old child. This child did not seem childish at all. She did not seem like a child at all. She seemed more like an adult who had been through many hardships.

"It's you!" Aino's eyes already began to tear up. No matter how much mature she tried to be, she was still a six-year-old child after all. Once she thought of her mother, Aino would still cry. She forced herself to hold back her tears and then smiled and said coldly, "It's you who gave my Uncle Holden the idea. You let him come find my grandparents, and then you let my grandpa think of a way to trick me. This way, it would be easy for m Work me. This way, it would be easy for me to be abducted and for my mom to be taken away after that, isn't it?"

Lily was speechless.

"Answer me! Isn't that so?" Aino scolded coldly and fiercely again.

Lily immediately regained her senses. She hid the panic she felt in her heart, and forced herself to be calm. "Aino, you are the little princess of the Ford family. You are Master Sebastian's only daughter. I will not stoop to your level to argue with you. Seeing that you've lost your mother, I will not say anything anymore." After saying that, Lily hid herself behind Rose.

At that moment, another woman behind Rose involuntarily stood forward a little. She was an unfamiliar woman that Aino had never seen before. That woman's gaze had been affixed on Sebastian. Aino immediately understood something.

"Lily Parker!" Aino scolded sternly once again. She did not wait for Lily to answer her, but she just pointed at that unfamiliar woman beside Lily. "This woman was brought here by you, right"

That woman smiled gently. “Hello, little princess of the Ford family. I am Lily’s friend. I am also your grandparents’ friend.”

Aino rolled her eyes and sneered. “Do you want to take advantage of the fact that my mom is not around to seduce my dad?”

That woman was speechless. Aino had hit

Chapter 1840

That woman was speechless. Aino had hit the nail in the head about her goal. She had indeed come to seduce Sebastian. No! It could not be considered as seducing. It was Madam Ford, Rose, who invited her to come over. She had already been in South City for a few days. She just never expected that she would encounter the sudden passing of Old Master Ford.

Aino sneered. "You're not going to say anything? If you remained silent then that's considered as admitting it yourself, right?"

"You!" The woman had a little anger showing on her face, but she did not lash out. She looked at Rose with a slightly angry expression. "Madam Ford, is this your...granddaughter?"

After saying that, she looked at Sebastian again. "Master Sebastian, it's been a long time. Your daughter has already grown up so much?"

Aino was speechless. She raised her head and looked at her father with puzzlement.

Only then did Sebastian say to Aino, "

Only then did Sebastian say to Aino, "Aino, don't be rude to Miss Kemp."

"Dad, do you know this lady named Miss Kemp? Have you been involved with her for a long time?" Aino asked. If that were true, the Aino would cry herself to death on the spot there. No, before she cried herself to death, she had to bite her grandparents to death! She had to bite Lily to death! She had to bite everyone there who had harmed her mother to death! She would just leave her dad behind by himself! Let him live on in a lonely manner! Hmph! As she thought of that, Aino started to tear up.

"To be honest, Miss Scott..." The woman Sebastian addressed as Miss Kemp looked at Aino and spoke to her as an equal. "Can I call you Miss Scott? You're a six-year-old child, so theoretically speaking, you could be a young lady already."

"Yes! I am Miss Scott, anyway! Please introduce yourself!" Aino immediately said. She raised her head, got on the tip of her toes, and she attempted to be as tall as Miss Kemp. However, she could only search as tall as Miss Kemp's waistline. D* inned!

Miss Kemp smiled lightly. "Hello, Miss Scott. My name is Kemp, Maysun Kemp. My family is a true noble family in Kidon City. I know your Ford family is also the top-most noble family in South City. Your father is also the most powerful person in South City. However, even if the Poole family and Ford family from both South City and Kidon City combined together, they are also not as noble as my Kemp family. That is because if we were to trace the Kemp family's roots back to two hundred years ago, I would be a true and authentic princess. The princess that was worshiped by many."

She was very polite and very confident. There was also no underlying ill will in her words. She truly appeared to be ladylike and civilized. However, it was helpless that the six-year-old illiterate child could not understand some words.

"What trace? What is that about you being a princess? I am the princess, alright? My Uncle Kingston had been calling me little princess all this while! You're already a grown up, why are you still saying that you're a princess? You're calling the little princess all this while.

● You're already a grown up, why are you still saying that you're a princess? You're acting so pampered!" Aino said in a contemptuous tone. Maysun was speechless.

Kingston, who had been following them from not far away, almost laughed out loud. 'This little princess can be very good at unreasonably harassing others sometimes. Haha. Perhaps she could even anger this princess of the Kemp family so much that she lost her grace.' However, Kingston absolutely could not laugh at such an occasion. He just watched quietly.

Maysun was still very patient as she explained to Aino. "That means that two hundred years ago, my ancestor was the King."

"Haha!" Aino finally understood. "However, that's not the case now! If you're going to talk about things from two hundred years ago, then go back to two hundred years ago!"
